I represent the Clovis Unified School District for the above referenced matters pending before the Commission on State Mandates. Sometime after July 1, 2008, the District will obtain new representation. During the transition period I will continue to monitor the cases for the District but will not be representing the District at hearings or otherwise moving the work forward.

This letter requests on behalf of the District that any of the above matters currently calendared for Commission action be postponed until future notice by the District or the District's new representative.

Please call me if you need additional information.

Sincerely,

Keith B. Petersen

C: Michael Johnston, Assistant Superintendent, Clovis Unified School District.
