Commission Regulations (Cal. Code Regs., tit. 2, § 1181.5)

Scheduling. The election of officers occurs at the January Commission meeting of each year, except that in the calendar year following the statewide election of constitutional officers, the election may be postponed.

Eligibility. Commission members, as defined by Government Code section 17525, are eligible to be officers. The Commission consists of seven members as follows:

- The Director of Finance (Joe Stephenshaw)
- The Director of the Office of Planning and Research (Samuel Assefa)
- A public member with experience in public finance (Vacant)
- A county supervisor (Lee Adams)
- A governing board member of a school district as defined in Government Code Section 17519 (Renee Nash)

Conduct of Election. The Commission's regulations do not describe an election procedure. However, the regulations specify that Robert's Rules of Order are the Commission's default rules. Under Robert's Rules, there are two ways to hold the election:

1. Nominations may be made, and a vote taken. A nomination does not require a second.
2. A motion may be made to elect a member chairperson or vice chairperson. A motion requires a second.

Duties. The duties of the chairperson and vice chairperson are summarized below:

- Duties of Chairperson. The chairperson shall preside over all meetings of the Commission when present. The chairperson has all the rights and responsibilities of the other members, including the right to introduce motions or proposals and to speak and vote on them while presiding. The chairperson has the power to appoint one or more members of the Commission as a subcommittee to investigate and report to the Commission on any matter within the scope of the purposes of the Commission or to form advisory groups to assist the Commission or its subcommittees in fulfilling their purposes.
- Duties of Vice Chairperson. The vice chairperson shall preside over all meetings of the Commission at which the chairperson is not present. The vice chairperson has all the rights and responsibilities of the other members, including the right to introduce motions or proposals and to speak and vote on them while presiding.

Recommendation

Staff recommends that the current chairperson conduct the elections of chairperson and vice chairperson.

The following was the membership of the Commission's Subcommittees for 2023:

- Personnel: Joe Stephenshaw (Director of the Department of Finance) and Sarah Olsen (Public Member)

Nomination and Election Procedure

Any member may volunteer and nominate themselves to serve and, upon a vote of the Commission, may serve on a subcommittee of the Commission.

Conduct of Election. The Commission's regulations do not describe an election procedure. However, the regulations specify that Robert's Rules of Order are the Commission's default rules. Under Robert's Rules, there are two ways to hold the election:
