Scheduling. The election of officers occurs at the January meeting of each year, except in the calendar year following the statewide election of constitutional officers, the election may be postponed.

Conduct of Election. The Commission may authorize the Executive Director to conduct the election portion of the meeting. The Commission's regulations do not describe an election procedure. He or she has the right to introduce motions or proposals and to speak and vote on them while he or she is presiding. The chairperson may appoint one or more members of the Commission as a subcommittee to investigate and report to the Commission on any matter within the scope of the purposes of the Commission or to form advisory groups to assist the Commission or its subcommittees in fulfilling their purposes.
- Duties of Vice Chairperson. The vice chairperson shall preside over all meetings of the Commission in the absence of the chairperson. He or she has all the rights and responsibilities of the other members. He or she has the right to introduce motions or proposals and to speak and vote on them while he or she is presiding.
