EOPS Implementing Guidelines,
Chancellor of the California Community Colleges (January 2002)

Extended Opportunities Programs and Services

02-TC-29

West Kern Community College District, Claimant

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

This test claim addresses the Community College Extended Opportunity Programs and Services program (EOPS). In 1969, Senate Bill No. (SB) 164 added Article 8 to the Education Code establishing EOPS to “encourage local community colleges to establish and implement programs to identify those students affected by language, social, and economic handicaps, to increase the number of eligible EOPS students served, and to assist those students to achieve their educational objectives and goals, including, but not limited to, obtaining job skills, occupational certificates, or associate degrees, and transferring to four-year institutions.” (Ed. Code, § 69640.¹)

The community college districts (districts) are encouraged to participate in EOPS by both legislative intent language and state (and potentially federal) funding that is provided specifically for EOPS. In exchange for state funding, the district generally must meet minimum standards that are specified in the test claim statutes and executive orders.²

² The regulations and Guidelines pled are collectively referred to as the test claim executive orders. Staff assumes, arguendo, the Guidelines are executive orders because “they constitute a plan for implementation and administration of the EOPS program, and are administered by the State Community Colleges Chancellor, who serves at the pleasure of the Governor.”²

EOPS provides academic and financial support to community college students whose educational and socioeconomic backgrounds might otherwise prevent them from successfully attending college. Services are specifically designed for at-risk students and their special needs. Counseling contacts are required and a Student Educational Plan is developed for each student to assist the student in achieving their individual goals. Today, approximately 107,000 community college students are served by EOPS annually. The appropriation in the 2007-2008 state budget for EOPS was $106.78 million (Prop 98 state funds - local assistance) while the districts contributed $22.7 million to the program.

Many of the test claim statutes and executive orders require districts to perform a number of activities. However, the requirement to perform those activities is triggered by a district's decision to establish an EOPS program and to request and accept state funding for that program and therefore, those activities are not state-mandated activities. More specifically, pursuant to sections 69649 and 69650, the decisions to establish Extended Opportunities Programs or Extended Opportunities Services are discretionary decisions of the district, which must be approved by the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges (BOG). Similarly, if the districts decide to establish an EOPS program, they also make a discretionary decision regarding whether to apply to the BOG for a state grant to fund all or a portion of the costs of establishing and operating an EOPS program. (Ed. Code, § 69652.) Because the districts are not compelled to establish an EOPS program or to accept EOPS funding, the activities required by the test claim statutes are not state-mandated and thus are not reimbursable.

With regard to Education Code section 69656; California Code of Regulations, title 5, sections 56200, 56201, 56202, 56204, 56220, 56222, 56224, 56226, 56252, 56292; and the EOPS Implementing Guidelines (Guidelines), staff finds that these sections do not require districts to perform any activities because:

- Education Code section 69656 states the intent of the Legislature for the California State University (CSU) and the University of California (UC) to provide fee waivers for admissions applications for EOPS transfer students who provide waiver forms signed by a community college EOPS director and, by its plain language, requires no specific action on the part of districts or community college.
- California Code of Regulations, title 5, sections 56220-56226 relate to student eligibility and responsibility and do not require districts to perform any activities.
- California Code of Regulations, title 5, section 56252 is a statement of purpose for EOPS financial aid and does not require districts to perform any activities.
- California Code of Regulations, title 5, section 56292 states that the Chancellor may adjust allocations to correct for an over or under allocation or utilization of EOPS funds, but does not require any district to perform any activities.
- The Guidelines are permissive, and use the modifier “should” throughout. Moreover, even if any required activities were imposed on the districts by the Guidelines, they would be requirements of an ongoing elective program which the districts participate in on a voluntary basis and thus would not be state-mandated activities.³

³ Staff notes that Guidelines page 40, interpreting California Code of Regulations, title 5, section 56252, requires the EOPS program to notify the college's financial aid office when EOPS students receive book services. However, this is of no consequence since it is a downstream activity required as a condition of participation in an ongoing elective program.

CONCLUSION

Staff concludes that the test claim should be denied because the test claim statutes and executive orders do not require the community colleges to perform any state-mandated activities and thus do not impose a state-mandated program on community college districts because:

1. Downstream activities delineated by Education Code sections 69640, 69641, 69641.5, 69643, 69648, 69649, 69652, and 69655, as added or amended by the test claim statutes, California Code of Regulations, title 5, sections 56206, 56208, 56210, 56230, 56232, 56234, 56236, 56238, 56254, 56256, 56258, 56260, 56262, 56264, 56270, 56272, 56274, 56276, 56278, 56280, 56290, 56293, 56295, 56296, 56298 are requirements of an ongoing elective program which the districts participate in on a voluntary basis and thus are not state-mandated activities.
2. Education Code Section 69656, California Code of Regulations, title 5, sections 56200, 56201, 56202, 56204, 56220, 56222, 56224, 56226, 56540, 56252, 56292 and the Guidelines do not require districts to perform any activities and, even if they did, they would be requirements of an ongoing elective program which the districts participate in on a voluntary basis and thus would not be state-mandated activities.

Recommendation

Staff recommends that the Commission adopt this staff analysis to deny the test claim.

Background

This test claim addresses the Community College Extended Opportunity Programs and Services program (EOPS).

In 1969, SB 164 added Article 8 to the Education Code establishing EOPS.⁵ Article 8 contains all of the code sections pled in this test claim. The intent of the Legislature in establishing EOPS was to "encourage local community colleges to establish and implement programs to identify those students affected by language, social, and economic handicaps, to increase the number of eligible EOPS students served, and to assist those students to achieve their educational objectives and goals, including, but not limited, to, obtaining job skills, occupational certificates, or associate degrees, and transferring to four-year institutions." (Ed. Code, § 69640.)

The community college districts (districts) are encouraged to participate in EOPS by both legislative intent language and state (and potentially federal) funding that is provided specifically for EOPS. In exchange for state funding, the district generally must meet minimum standards that are specified in the test claim statutes and executive orders.⁶

EOPS provides academic and financial support to community college students whose educational and socioeconomic backgrounds might otherwise prevent them from successfully attending college. Services are specifically designed for at-risk students and their special needs. Counseling contacts are required and a Student Educational Plan is developed for each student to assist the student in achieving their individual goals. Today, approximately 107,000 community college students are served by EOPS annually. The appropriation in the 2007-2008 state budget for EOPS was $106.78 million (Prop 98 state funds - local assistance) while the districts contributed $22.7 million to the program.

Importantly, as is reflected throughout the statutory and regulatory framework, the Legislature stated its intent that EOPS not be viewed as the only means of providing services to nontraditional and disadvantaged students or of meeting student and employee affirmative action objectives. (See Ed. Code, § 69640.) Rather, EOPS is intended as a supplement to the other programs and services available to community college students.

To be eligible for EOPS a student must:

- (1) Be a resident of California
- (2) Be enrolled full-time when accepted into the EOPS program (the EOPS director may authorize up to 10% of EOPS students accepted to be enrolled for 9 units).
- (3) Not have completed more than 70 units of degree applicable credit coursework in any combination of post-secondary higher education institutions.
- (4) Qualify to receive a Board of Governors (BOG) Grant.⁷

⁵ Statutes 1969, chapter 1579.

⁶ The regulations pled are collectively referred to as the test claim executive orders throughout this analysis.

⁷ A BOG Grant is a community college fee waiver provided to California residents who either:

The Role of the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges

The BOG is required to consider adopting regulations which include all of the following objectives:

- (a) That the EOPS provided by a community college shall include, but not be limited to, staff qualified to counsel all EOPS students regarding their individual educational objectives and the specific academic or vocational training program necessary to achieve those objectives, and that each EOPS student receives that counseling upon his or her initial enrollment in the community college, and at least every six months thereafter.
- (b) That in assisting all EOPS students to identify their educational objectives, the EOPS provided by a community college identifies those students who want to transfer to a four-year institution, and those who have the potential to transfer successfully, and that the EOPS director at each community college disseminates the names and addresses of these potential transfer students to admissions staff at public universities throughout the state at least once a year.
- (c) That the EOPS director at each community college shall work with other community college staff to encourage all interested EOPS students to enroll in existing community college classes designed to develop skills necessary for successful study at a university, including, but not limited to, time management, research and study skills, classroom note-taking skills, and writing skills, and that these classes be developed if they are not already established. (Ed. Code, § 69641.5.)

The BOG is required to adopt rules and regulations necessary to implement Education Code Chapter 2, Article 8, including rules and regulations which do all of the following:

- (a) Prescribe the procedure by which a district shall identify a student eligible for EOPS on the basis of the student's language, social, or economic disadvantages.
- (b) Establish minimum standards for the establishment and conduct of EOPS. The standards may include, but shall not be limited to, guidelines for all of the following:
 - (1) The provision of staffing and program management.
 - (2) The establishment of a documentation and data collection system.
 - (3) The establishment of an EOPS advisory committee.
 - (4) The provision of recruitment and outreach services.

- A. Are recipients or dependants of recipients of: TANF/CalWORKs; SSI/SSP (Supplemental Security Income/State Supplemental Program); General Assistance, the Congressional Medal of Honor or who have certification from the California Department of Veterans Affairs or are a dependant of a victim of the September 11, 2001 terrorist attack; or,
 - B. Have an income (or are a dependant of someone with an income) at or below 150% of the federal poverty guidelines, ($15,600 for a family of one for 2009/2010).

- (5) The provision of cognitive and noncognitive assessment, advising, and orientation services.
 - (6) The provision of college registration.
 - (7) The provision of basic skills instruction, seminars, and tutorial assistance.
 - (8) The provision of counseling and retention services.
 - (9) The provision of transfer services.
 - (10) The provision of direct aid.
 - (11) The establishment of objectives to achieve the goals specified in Education Code section 69640, and objectives to be applied in implementing EOPS.
- (c) Subject to approval of the Chancellor, establish procedures for the review and evaluation of the districts' EOPS.
 - (d) Require the submission of the reports by districts that will permit the evaluation of the program and services offered. (Ed. Code, § 69648.)

The BOG is also required to determine the elements of a statewide database for EOPS, pursuant to Education Code section 69648, which shall be used for periodic evaluation of the programs and services. The data base shall include all information necessary to demonstrate the statewide progress towards achieving the program goals identified in section Education Code 69640, and program objectives adopted pursuant to section Education Code 69648 including, but not limited to, all of the following:

- (1) The annual number of EOPS students and non-EOPS students who complete degree or certificate programs, transfer programs, or other programs, as determined by state and local matriculation policies.
- (2) The annual number of EOPS and non-EOPS students who transfer to institutions which award the baccalaureate degree. In implementing this paragraph, the BOG shall work in cooperation with the California Postsecondary Education Commission, the President of the University of California, the Chancellor of the California State University, and the Association of Independent Colleges and Universities to establish methods for obtaining the necessary data.
- (3) The annual number of EOPS and non-EOPS students completing occupational programs who find career employment. In implementing this paragraph, the board of governors shall integrate the data collection with existing data collection requirements pertaining to vocational education.

Since January 1987, the BOG has been required to annually report to the Legislature regarding the number of students served by community college EOPS and the number of EOPS students who achieve their educational objectives. [Ed. Code, § 69655 (b).]

State Funding of EOPS

The BOG is required to review the need for state funds for state financial aid programs, including EOPS, and to include an estimate of such need in its budget for each year. (Section 69654.) The BOG may use up to one percent of the funds appropriated for the EOPS program by the annual Budget Act to monitor program activities and to conduct the evaluation of EOPS offered by districts. (Ed. Code, § 69648.5.) As mentioned above, for budget year 2007-2008, the state provided $106.78 million to community college EOPS programs while the districts contributed a combined $22.7 million to their own EOPS programs.

Claimant's Position

Claimant alleges reimbursable state-mandated costs for districts to “provide certified directors, instructors and counselors; to provide counselors for students; to comply with new minimum standards; petition for waivers of minimum standards and staffing requirements; to enter into educational plans and mutual responsibility contracts; verify student eligibility and compliance; and utilize specific accounting standards and procedures in order to implement the EOPS program.”⁸

Claimant maintains that even if the EOPS was originally an optional program, beginning with the 1987-1988 academic year Title 5 California Code of Regulations, section 56210 required each college to maintain EOPS programs at a minimum level.⁹ Claimant states that therefore, the provisions of Government Code section 17565 apply in this case. Government Code section 17565 provides that if a school district, at its option, has been incurring costs which are subsequently mandated by the state, the state shall reimburse the district for those costs incurred after the operative date of the mandate. In further clarification of this issue, claimant states that this is more than maintenance of effort and that colleges may not discontinue the program.¹⁰ Claimant focuses on the “shall maintain” language of Title 5 California Code of Regulations, section 56210 in finding a mandate.

Claimant also argues that districts are practically compelled to provide EOPS because “in order to be eligible to receive state funding, the program shall meet the minimum standards established pursuant to subdivision (b) of section 69648.”¹¹ Claimant cites to the Sacramento II and Kern cases to support its practical compulsion arguments.¹²

On June 2, 2009, claimant submitted comments on the draft staff analysis. In addition to making a number of technical comments, claimant argued that the EOPS Implementing Guidelines (Guidelines) are executive orders because “they constitute a plan for implementation and administration of the EOPS program, and are administered by the State Community Colleges Chancellor, who serves at the pleasure of the Governor.”¹³ Finally, claimant argued that community colleges are legally required to participate in EOPS by mandatory provisions in the test claim statutes and regulations, citing to Title 5, California Code of Regulations section 56210, which requires districts to maintain the same dollar level of services supported with non-EOPS funds as the average for the prior three years.¹⁴ In support of this argument claimant states that “[t]here is no exception to this provision to allow community colleges to discontinue their EOPS programs, regardless of the alleged initial choice to participate.”¹⁵

Department of Finance’s Position

DOF believes that a district’s participation in EOPS is the result of a discretionary action taken by the governing board of the district, and therefore the state laws and regulations at issue in this test claim do not impose state-mandated reimbursable activities.¹⁶ Moreover, DOF asserts, “the choice of a district to participate in this discretionary program remains discretionary as the program’s internal requirements change, because the authority to establish a program in statute has remained unchanged over time. The claimant therefore could withdraw from the program and not be subject to any altered requirements. . . .”¹⁷ DOF also emphasizes that “funding is specifically provided in the annual budget for districts who apply for funding, which then triggers the requirements of the program” and that “activities related to the requirements of the voluntary program have a specific fund source dedicated to offset district costs.”¹⁸ DOF cites to the plain language of sections 69640, 69649 which use the terms “encourage” and “may” regarding a district’s establishment of an EOPS program. DOF also cites to sections 69652 and 69653 which DOF says “establish mechanisms that authorize district to apply to the [BOG] for funding, rather than requiring them to do so. . . .” DOF also notes that if the BOG denied a district’s request to establish an EOPS program, a district would have no legal obligation to operate a program.¹⁹

In support of its argument that the test claim statutes and executive orders do not impose a reimbursable mandate, DOF cites to Kern in which DOF says “the court found that if a school district elects to participate in any underlying voluntary education-related funded program, the obligation to comply with the requirements related to that program does not constitute a reimbursable state mandate.”²⁰ With regard to California Code of Regulations, title 5, section 56210, DOF argues that it “applies only to those colleges choosing to operate a program” and “nothing prevents a district from discontinuing its program and its associated maintenance of effort requirement.”²¹

California Community Colleges Position

CCC states that there are no state-mandated costs because EOPS is voluntary and not compulsory.²² Specifically, CCC points out that Education Code section 69640 states legislative intent “to encourage local community college districts to establish and implement programs. . . .” Additionally, CCC cites to Education Code sections 69649 and 64650 regarding the establishment of Extended Opportunities Programs (EOP) and Extended Opportunities Services (EOS) which both state, in pertinent part that “[t]he governing board of a community college district may, with approval of the [BOG] establish. . . .” Finally, CCC quotes Education Code section 69652 and 69653 regarding state funding for EOPS which state that a district “...may apply to the [BOG] for an allowance to meet all or a portion of the cost of establishing and operating [EOPS] authorized by the article” and that “applications shall be subject to approval of the board.”

According to CCC’s analysis, “nothing in the law requires districts to have EOPS; indeed approval of the [BOG] is necessary for a district to establish such a program.”²³ Additionally, CCC adds, “nor does the law provide that the entire cost of establishing and operating EOPS will be covered, if the district has secured the required approval.” CCC also argues that the districts are not legally or practically compelled to establish and operate EOPS program and cites to the Kern case to support this argument.²⁴ Specifically, CCC states:

[t]here are no fines or penalties or other forms of compulsion if a district does not choose to voluntarily establish EOPS and receive state funding for the programs and services. If a District chooses to receive EOPS funding, compliance with the EOPS statutes and regulations merely amounts to “the cost of compliance with conditions of participation in these funded programs.”²⁵

CCC argues that even where districts had EOPS programs in place prior to various changes in statute, there are no state-mandated costs.²⁶ In support of this argument CCC cites a portion of the Kern decision which says in pertinent part: “. . . [t]he circumstance that the Legislature has determined that the requirements of an ongoing elective program should be modified does not render a local entity’s decision whether to continue its participation in the modified program any less voluntary.”²⁷

Discussion

The courts have found that article XIII B, section 6, of the California Constitution recognizes the state constitutional restrictions on the powers of local government to tax and spend. “Its purpose is to preclude the state from shifting financial responsibility for carrying out governmental functions to local agencies, which are ‘ill equipped’ to assume increased financial responsibilities because of the taxing and spending limitations that articles XIII A and XIII B impose.”²⁸ A test claim statute or executive order may impose a reimbursable state-mandated program if it orders or commands a local agency or school district to engage in an activity or task.²⁹ In addition, the required activity or task must be new, constituting a “new program,” or it must create a “higher level of service” over the previously required level of service.³⁰

The courts have defined a “program” subject to article XIII B, section 6, of the California Constitution, as one that carries out the governmental function of providing public services, or a law that imposes unique requirements on local agencies or school districts to implement a state policy, but does not apply generally to all residents and entities in the state.³¹ To determine if the program is new or imposes a higher level of service, the test claim statutes and executive orders must be compared with the legal requirements in effect immediately before the enactment.³² A “higher level of service” occurs when the new “requirements were intended to provide an enhanced service to the public.”³³ Finally, the newly required activity or increased level of service must impose costs mandated by the state.³⁴

The Commission is vested with exclusive authority to adjudicate disputes over the existence of state-mandated programs within the meaning of article XIII B, section 6.³⁵ In making its decisions, the Commission must strictly construe article XIII B, section 6, and not apply it as an “equitable remedy to cure the perceived unfairness resulting from political decisions on funding priorities.”³⁶

The analysis addresses the following issue: do the test claim statutes and executive orders require community colleges to perform state-mandated activities?

Issue: Do Education Code sections 69640, 69641, 69641.5, 69643, 69648, 69649, 69652, 69655 and 69656, as added or amended by the test claim statutes, California Code of Regulations, title 5, sections 56200, 56201, 56202, 56204, 56206, 56208, 56210, 56220, 56222, 56224, 56226, 56230, 56232, 56234, 56236, 56238, 56240, 56252, 56254, 56256, 56258, 56260, 56262, 56264, 56270, 56272, 56274, 56276, 56278, 56280, 56290, 56292, 56293, 56295, 56296, or, 56298, or the Guidelines published by the Chancellor of the California Community Colleges in January 2002 require community colleges to perform state-mandated activities?

Claimant alleges reimbursable state-mandated costs for districts to “provide certified directors, instructors and counselors; to provide counselors for students; to comply with new minimum standards; petition for waivers of minimum standards and staffing requirements; to enter into education plans and mutual responsibility contracts; verify student eligibility and compliance; and utilize specific accounting standards and procedures in order to implement the EOPS program.”³⁷

Claimant also argues that districts are practically compelled to provide EOPS because “in order to receive state funding, the program shall meet the minimum standards established pursuant to subdivision (b) of section 69648.”³⁸ Claimant cites to the Sacramento II and Kern cases to support its practical compulsion arguments.³⁹

Staff concludes that the test claim should be denied because the test claim statutes and executive orders do not require the community colleges to perform any state-mandated activities and thus do not impose a state-mandated program on community college districts because:

- Downstream activities delineated by Education Code sections 69640, 69641, 69641.5, 69643, 69648, 69649, 69652, and 69655, as added or amended by the test claim statutes, California Code of Regulations, Title 5 sections 56206, 56208, 56210, 56230, 56232, 56234, 56236, 56238, 56254, 56256, 56258, 56260, 56262, 56264, 56270, 56272, 56274, 56276, 56278, 56280, 56290, 56293, 56295, 56296, 56298 are requirements of an ongoing elective program which the districts participate in on a voluntary basis and thus are not state-mandated activities.
- Education Code section 69656, California Code of Regulations, title 5, sections 56200, 56201, 56202, 56204, 56220, 56222, 56224, 56226, 56540, 56252, and 56292 and the Guidelines do not require districts to perform any activities and, even if they did, they would be requirements of an ongoing elective program which the districts participate in on a voluntary basis and thus would not be state-mandated activities.⁴⁰

I. Downstream activities delineated by Education Code sections 69640, 69641, 69641.5, 69643, 69648, 69649, 69652, 69655 and 69656, as added or amended by the test claim statutes, California Code of Regulations, title 5, sections 56206, 56208, 56210, 56230, 56232, 56234, 56236, 56238, 56254, 56256, 56258, 56260, 56262, 56264, 56270, 56272, 56274, 56276, 56278, 56280, 56290, 56293, 56295, 56296, 56298, and Guidelines section 56252 are requirements of an ongoing elective program which the districts participate in on a voluntary basis and thus are not state-mandated activities.

The decision to establish an EOP or EOS is a discretionary decision of the district which must be approved by the BOG. There is no requirement in law for establishment of EOPS programs. Education Code section 69649 states:

(a) [t]he governing board of a community college district may, with the approval of the board, establish an EOP. Except as provided in subdivision (b), in order to be eligible to receive state funding, the program shall meet the minimum standards established pursuant to subdivision (b) of section 69648.

(b) The board of governors may waive any or all of the minimum standards established pursuant to subdivision (b) of section 69648 if the board of governors determines that unusual circumstances which merit a waiver exist. (Emphasis added.)

Likewise Education Code section 69650 provides:

The governing board of a community college district may, with the approval of the board, establish EOS. Such services may include, but need not be limited to:

- (a) Loans or grants to meet living costs or a portion thereof.
- (b) Loans or grants to meet the cost of student fees.
- (c) Loans or grants to meet cost of transportation between home and college.
- (d) The provision of scholarships.
- (e) Work-experience programs.
- (f) Job placement programs. (Emphasis added.)

Similarly, if the districts decide to establish an EOPS program, they may also apply to the BOG for a state grant to fund all or a portion of the costs of establishing and operating an EOPS program. (Ed. Code, § 69652.) Education Code section 69652 provides:

The governing board of a community college district may apply to the board for an allowance to meet all or a portion of the cost of establishing and operating EOPS. The application must contain a detailed plan for use of the allowance and be submitted in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the BOG.

The use of funds provided by the state for EOPS is restricted as follows:

The governing board of a community college district shall not use any funds received from the state for the operation and administration of [EOPS] to supplant district resources, programs, or services authorized by section 69649 and 69650. The governing board may use those funds to meet the matching requirements to receive federal funds, or funds granted by nonprofit foundations, designated for the same purposes, for EOPS, as defined by section 69641. (Ed. Code, § 69651)⁴¹.

Consistent with the prohibition against supplanting district resources, programs or services with EOPS funds, is the requirement that the district must supplement the regular educational programs of the district to encourage the enrollment of students handicapped by language, social, and economic disadvantages, and to facilitate the successful completion of their educational goals and objectives. (Ed. Code, § 69641.) In other words, EOPS resources, programs and funds are required to supplement the existing resources, programs and funds of the district in order to increase the likelihood that EOPS students, who by definition are disadvantaged and less likely to succeed in college than other students without such assistance, will reach their academic and career goals. It is up to each district to choose whether to establish an EOPS program and take advantage of the additional funds provided by the state to meet this important need.

Activities Required of Districts as a Condition of State Funding

If a district exercises its discretion to establish EOP and/or EOS and applies for state funding for its EOPS program, those decisions trigger a number of planning, funding and expenditure, staffing, student services, financial aid and program evaluation activities. These activities are listed below:

⁴¹ See also California Code of Regulations, title 5, section 56210 which was adopted to implement the requirements of this section.

1. EOPS Plan

A. A District's submittal of an EOPS Plan is a condition of participation in the EOPS program: Districts wishing to participate in EOPS shall submit for approval by the Chancellor a plan which conforms to the provisions of California Code of Regulations, title 5, Chapter 7 for each college within the district which intends to conduct an EOPS program. A college plan approved by the Chancellor shall constitute a contract between the district which operates the college and the Chancellor. Changes to the program may be made only with the prior written approval of the Chancellor. (Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56270.) Each plan shall contain the following:

- (1) The long-term goals of the EOPS program in supporting the goals of the college and the goals adopted for EOPS by the BOG.
- (2) The objectives of the EOPS program to be attained in the fiscal year for which EOPS funds are allocated.
- (3) The activities to be undertaken to achieve the objectives, including how the college plans to meet the program standards, EOPS financial aid standards and the staffing standards imposed by California Code of Regulations, title 5, Chapter 7.
- (4) An operating budget which indicates the planned expenditures of EOPS funds, and other district funds to be used to finance EOPS activities.
- (5) The number of students to be served.
- (6) An evaluation of the results achieved in the prior year of funding.
(Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56272.)

B. EOPS Plan Deadlines and Procedures:

- (1) The Chancellor's Office shall annually set a final date for submission of EOPS plans and provide at least 90-days notice of that date. Applications and plans received after that date shall be returned to the district without evaluation or consideration. (Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56274.) Plans and requests for funding that are submitted on time shall be reviewed, evaluated. Requests for funding shall be approved in whole or in part. (Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56276.)
- (2) Each plan shall incorporate the priorities in California Code of Regulations, Title 5, section 56280 in the order presented when serving eligible EOPS students:
 - a. Priority in outreach and recruitment services shall be directed towards correcting the greatest underrepresentation among students served. Additional priority among underrepresented students shall be given to serving individuals who are the first in their family to attend college.
 - b. Priority in serving students enrolled at the college shall be:
 1. Serving continuing EOPS students with the lowest income.
 2. Serving continuing EOPS students with the lowest income who have transferred from another community college EOPS program.
 3. Serving first-time EOPS students with the lowest income. (Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56280.)

2. Funding and Expenditures

- A. Districts shall maintain separate accounts for monies provided for, and expended in, support of EOPS activities by specific line item. (Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56290.)
- B. Districts shall insure that colleges under their jurisdiction conducting EOPS programs provide the same programs and services it offers to all of its credit enrolled students to EOPS students. The district shall fund the cost of such programs and services from resources available to it, except EOPS funds, at a rate per EOPS student that is at least equal to the average cost per student served (including EOPS students) in these programs and services. (Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56293.)
- C. Districts accepting EOPS funds will be required to pay the 100% of the salary of the EOPS director. (Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56293.)
- D. Colleges shall expend EOPS funds only for programs and services that are over, above, and in addition to the costs which are the district's responsibility as defined in California Code of Regulations, title 5, section 56293 (i.e. supplemental costs). (Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56294.)
- E. Colleges may expend EOPS funds to meet the supplemental costs as defined in section 56294 for personnel and other expenses approved in the EOPS annual plan. Expenditures for other expenses in object categories 4000-6000 (except for EOPS financial aid) in the Budget and Accounting Manual shall not exceed 10% of the EOPS allocation or $50,000, whichever is less. (Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56295.)
- F. Requests to purchase computer hardware and/or software shall be approved by the district superintendant/president prior to transmittal for approval by the Chancellor. (Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56295.)
- G. EOPS funds shall not be expended for the following:
 - (1) College administrative support costs (e.g. staff of business office, bookstore, reproduction, staff at the dean salary level and above).
 - (2) Indirect costs (e.g. heat, lights, power, janitorial service).
 - (3) Costs of furniture (chairs, desks coat hangers, etc.). (Cal. Code Regs., tit. 5 § 56296.)
- H. In each fiscal year the colleges shall expend for EOPS grants and work-study, an amount equal to that expended in the prior fiscal year, unless waived by the chancellor for the following reasons:
 - (1) To establish a book service program.
 - (2) The college allocation was corrected pursuant to section 56292.
 - (3) To meet the requirements of Article 3 (i.e. Program Standards) (Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56298.)
- I. The college shall maintain the same dollar level of services supported with non-EOPS funds as the average reported in its final budget report in the previous three academic years. At minimum, this amount shall equal the three year average or 15% of the average EOPS allocation to that college for the same three base years, whichever is greater. The Chancellor may approve reductions in the required amount if enrollments in the EOPS program decline. (Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56210; see also Ed. Code, § 69651, discussed above.)

3. Staffing Standards

- A. Certified directors and instructors and board approval of counselors and support staff: EOPS shall be provided by certificated directors and instructors, as well as by counselors and other support staff approved by the governing board of the community college district. (Ed. Code § 69641.)
- B. Full-time EOPS director: Each college receiving EOPS funds shall employ a full-time EOPS director. Colleges having less than full-time EOPS director positions may continue such position upon approval by the Chancellor who shall consider the number of students served, size of the EOPS staff and budget and the scope and level of services offered when approving requests for less than full-time EOPS director positions. (Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56230.)
- C. Director qualifications: The EOPS director must meet the minimum qualifications for a student services administrator as specified in California Code of Regulations, title 5, section 53420 or possess a Community College Supervisor Credential. In addition, an EOPS director must have:
- (1) within the last four years, two years experience or the equivalent:
 - a. in the management or administration of educational programs, community organizations, government programs, or private industry in which the applicant dealt predominantly with ethnic minorities or persons handicapped by language, social or economic disadvantages or,
 - b. as a community college EOPS counselor or EOPS instructor, or have a comparable experience working with disadvantaged clientele, and,
 - (2) two years of occupational experience in work relating to ethnic minorities or persons handicapped by language, social or economic disadvantages. (Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56262.)
- D. Staff: EOPS shall be provided by a certificated director, instructors and counselors and other support staff employed by the governing board of the district. (Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56260.)
- E. Counselor qualifications: EOPS counselors are those persons designated by the community college to serve as certificated counselors in the EOPS program and must possess the Community College Counselor Credential or a master's degree in counseling, rehabilitation counseling, clinical psychology, counseling psychology, guidance counseling, educational counseling, social work, or career development, or the equivalent, and:
- (1) have completed a minimum of nine semester units of college course work predominantly relating to ethnic minorities or persons handicapped by language, social or economic disadvantages, or
 - (2) have completed six semester units or the equivalent of a college-level counseling practicum or counseling field-work courses in a community college EOPS program, or in a program dealing predominantly with ethnic minorities or persons handicapped by language, social or economic disadvantages, and,

- (3) have two years of occupational experience in work relating to predominantly with ethnic minorities or persons handicapped by language, social or economic disadvantages. (Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56264.)

4. Student Services

A. Outreach, orientation, and registration services: Each college receiving EOPS funds shall provide access to services to identify EOPS eligible students and facilitate their enrollment in the college. Access services shall include at minimum:

- (1) Outreach and recruitment to increase the number of potential EOPS eligible students who enroll at the college.
- (2) Orientation to familiarize EOPS eligible students with: the location and function of college and EOPS programs and services; the college catalog, application, and registration process, with emphasis on academic and grading standards, college terminology, (e.g., grade points, units) course add and drop procedures; and transfer procedures to four-year institutions.
- (3) Registration assistance for priority enrollment pursuant to Title 5 California Code of Regulations section 58108. (Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56232.)

B. Assessments: Each college receiving EOPS funds shall assess EOPS eligible students using instruments and methods which the college president certifies are reliable, valid, and appropriate for the students being assessed and for the purpose of the assessment. All assessment results which make use of standardized scoring shall be explained and interpreted to EOPS students by counselors trained in the use and meaning of such assessments. Assessments shall, at minimum include:

- (1) Course and placement tests in reading, comprehension, vocabulary, writing, and computations.
- (2) Diagnostic tests to determine the specific academic skill deficiencies in areas in which placement tests indicate that the student has a low probability of success in degree applicable courses as defined by college policies.
- (3) Study skill assessment which determines how well the student is able to take lecture notes, outline written material, use library services, and use effective study techniques.
- (4) Support service assessment which determines what services the student may need to attend regularly and participate in campus life (such as the need for financial aid, child care, part-time employment, or extra-curricular pursuits).
- (5) Assessment instruments that are not culturally or linguistically biased. (Cal. Code Regs., tit. 5, § 56234.)

C. Counseling and advisement: Each college receiving EOPS funds shall provide counseling and advisement to EOPS-eligible students of at least three contact sessions per term for each student as follows:

- (1) A contact session which combines interview and interpretation of assessment results to prepare a student educational plan and a mutual responsibility contract specifying what programs and services the student shall receive and what the student is expected to accomplish.

- (2) An in-term contact session to ensure the student is succeeding adequately, that the programs and services are being provided effectively, and to plan changes as soon as may be needed to enhance student success.
- (3) A term-end or program exit contact session to assess the success of students in reaching the objectives of that term, the success of the programs and services provided in meeting student needs, and to assist students to prepare for the next term of classes, or to make future plans if students are leaving the EOPS program or the college. (Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56236.)

D. Basic skills instruction and tutoring services: Colleges receiving EOPS funds shall provide basic skills instruction and tutoring services to EOPS eligible students who, on the basis of assessments and counseling, need such services to succeed in reaching their educational goals. (Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56238.)

E. Transfer and career employment services: Colleges receiving EOPS funds shall provide assistance to EOPS eligible students to transfer to four-year institutions and/or to find career employment in their field of training. Appropriate colleges and EOPS staff shall attempt to articulate coursework and support services needed by EOPS students with four-year institutional staff, particularly four-year institutional staff who are responsible for programs and services that are similar to EOPS. (Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56240.)

5. Financial Aid

A. Award procedures:

- (1) Financial aid offices shall award and disburse EOPS grant and workstudy funds according to college procedures upon the authorization of the EOPS office.
- (2) EOPS office shall authorize EOPS grant and workstudy awards such that:
 - a. Awards are distributed as evenly as possible between dependant and independent students.
 - b. Priority in awards is given to dependant or independent students having the lowest family or personal incomes, respectively.
- (3) EOPS may authorize an EOPS grant to reduce packaged student employment awards on a case by case basis. (Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56256.)

B. EOPS grants and workstudy awards: EOPS grants are required to be distributed to each student equally among terms in the college academic year. The provision of grants and workstudy awards is at the discretion of the colleges so long as workstudy awards do not exceed $1,800 per academic year and EOPS grants do not exceed $900 per academic year. However, the amount of the combined EOPS grant and workstudy award is limited to a maximum of $1,800 or the student's unmet need, whichever is less. (Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56254.)

C. Emergency loans: EOPS programs may establish an emergency loan program for EOPS students to meet the unexpected or untimely costs for books, college supplies, transportation and housing, subject to the following requirements:

- (1) Loans may not exceed $300 in a single academic year and must be repaid within the academic year in which the loan was made.

- (2) Loan funds shall be held in a separate account established by the district for that purpose; collected funds and interest earned shall be credited to the loan account and all loan funds may be carried over fiscal years for the life of the loan program.
- (3) The total amount held for the loan program may not exceed three times the amount originally set aside to establish the program. Amounts in excess of this limit, or the total amount held when the program is terminated, shall be returned to the Chancellor. (Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56258.)

6. Program Evaluation

- A. The Chancellor shall require districts receiving EOPS funds to identify students served and the level and type of programs and services each student received. (Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56206.)
- B. Each college having an approved plan shall participate annually in an evaluation of the effectiveness of the program which shall be conducted by the Chancellor. The annual evaluation may include on-site operational reviews, audits, and measurements of student success in achieving their educational objectives. (Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56278.)

7. Advisory Committee

Each EOPS program shall have an Advisory Committee appointed by the president of the college upon recommendation of the EOPS Director. The committee shall consist of no fewer members than the local Board of Trustees. Members serve without compensation but may be reimbursed for necessary expenses incurred in performing their duties. (Cal. Code Regs., tit.5, § 56208.)

Community College Districts are Not Legally Compelled to Establish and Maintain an EOPS Program

The Commission finds that the requirement to perform the above outlined activities is triggered by the claimant's voluntary participation in the underlying EOPS program and acceptance of state funding for that program and that therefore, none of the required activities are state-mandated.

Claimant maintains that even if the EOPS was originally an optional program, beginning with the 1987-1988 academic year Title 5 California Code of Regulations, section 56210 required each college to maintain EOPS programs at a minimum level.⁴² Claimant states that therefore, the provisions of Government Code section 17565 apply in this case. Government Code section 17565 provides that if a district, at its option, has been incurring costs which are subsequently mandated by the state, the state shall reimburse the district for those costs incurred after the operative date of the mandate. In further clarification of this issue, claimant states that this is more than a maintenance of effort and that colleges may not discontinue the program.⁴³ Claimant focuses on the "shall maintain" language of Title 5 California Code of Regulations, section 56210 in finding a state mandate prohibiting the discontinuance the EOPS program. Title 5 California Code of Regulations section 56210 provides:

Beginning with the 1987-88 academic year and every year thereafter, the college shall maintain the same dollar level of services supported with non-EOPS funds as the average reported in its final budget report in the previous three academic years. At minimum, this amount shall equal the three year average or 15% of the average EOPS allocation to that college for the same three base years, whichever is greater. The Chancellor may approve reductions in the required amount if enrollments in the EOPS program decline.

When an administrative agency adopts regulations, California law requires that it also adopt what is known as a “Statement of Reasons.”⁴⁴ The Final Statement of Reasons (Amended) for section 56210 states that “[t]his Section was adopted to implement Education Code Section 69651, and to identify a base year for purposes of establishing the level of district resources which would be required by this statute.”⁴⁵ Section 69651, as discussed above, prohibits districts using any funds received from the state for the operation and administration of [EOPS] to supplant district resources, programs, or services authorized by sections 69649 and 69650. Section 69650 requires compliance with the regulations adopted by the BOG as a condition of receiving EOPS funding from the state.

The method adopted in California Code of Regulations, title 5, section 56210 to ensure that EOPS funds do not supplant district resources, programs, or services authorized by sections 69649 and 69650 was derived from testimony of presidents and superintendents of community colleges.⁴⁶ Specifically, “the colleges stated that using a percentage would give them more flexibility in the use of their general funds.”⁴⁷ “Jack Randell, President of the Chief Executive Officers Association, testified that it would be advantageous to colleges to be able to move funds to those areas of the program with the greatest need.”⁴⁸ Similarly the averaging of the previous three academic years was adopted “to insure that one abnormal year will not distort the non-EOPS monies made available to EOPS programs through services provided by colleges.”⁴⁹ Finally, the fifteen percent minimum contribution provides “EOPS programs a minimum contribution figure in order for programs to budget for the upcoming year”⁵⁰ There is nothing in the regulatory history to indicate that anyone thought section 56210 would make the EOPS program mandatory.

Claimant, in its comments submitted on the draft staff analysis, argued further that “[t]he adoption of section 56210 removed the voluntary aspect of the program for those community colleges that had provided an EOPS program in any of the three years preceding the 1987-88 fiscal year, while leaving the program voluntary for those community college districts that had not provided a program during that period of time.”⁵¹ Claimant maintains that “this maintenance of effort is similar to that seen in the Health Fee Elimination mandate, which was approved by the Commission on November 20, 1986.”⁵²

At the outset, with regard to the Health Fee Elimination mandate, this test claim is distinguishable on its facts because EOPS is not a mandatory program. Moreover, even if this test claim were similar, it is important to note that prior decisions of the Commission do not have precedential value. The California Supreme Court has held that the failure of a quasi-judicial agency to consider prior decisions on the same subject is not a violation of due process and does not constitute an arbitrary action by the agency.⁵³ In Weiss, the plaintiffs brought mandamus proceedings to review the refusal of the State Board of Equalization to issue an off-sale beer and wine license at their premises. Plaintiffs contended that the action of the board was arbitrary and unreasonable because the board granted similar licenses to other businesses in the past. The California Supreme Court disagreed with the plaintiffs’ contention and found that the board did not act arbitrarily. The Court stated in pertinent part: “[n]ot only does due process permit omission of reasoned administrative opinions but it probably also permits substantial deviation from the principle of stare decisis.”⁵⁴ In addition, the Attorney General’s Office has issued an opinion, citing the Weiss case, agreeing that the claims previously approved by the Commission on State Mandates have no precedential value. Rather “[a]n agency may disregard its earlier decision, provided that its action is neither arbitrary nor unreasonable”⁵⁵ While Attorney General Opinions are not binding; they are entitled to great weight.⁵⁶

Moreover, the merits of a claim brought under article XIII B, section 6 of the California Constitution must be analyzed individually. Commission decisions are not arbitrary or unreasonable as long as the decision strictly construes the Constitution and the statutory language of the test claim statute and does not apply section 6 as an equitable remedy.⁵⁷

Claimant has failed to consider the rules of statutory interpretation and thus interprets Title 5 California Code of Regulations, section 56210 as making the EOPS program mandatory.

⁵⁰ Ibid. Note that historically, districts have received a minimum of $50,000 and a guarantee of at least 95% of the prior year funding from the state.

Looking at section 56210 in isolation, claimant’s interpretation is understandable. However, in determining what a statute requires, the Commission must look at the whole act.⁵⁸ Its words must be construed in context,⁵⁹ so as to make sense of the entire statutory scheme.⁶⁰ Here, though it is true that section 56210 says “the college shall maintain,” this language must be read within the context of the whole statutory and regulatory scheme. As discussed above, the decision to establish an EOPS program and request funding for that program is a discretionary decision of the district which must be approved by the BOG.⁶¹ The statutory scheme makes clear that compliance with the requirements of the test claim statutes and executive orders is a condition of receiving funding for the EOPS program.⁶² There is no penalty for refusal to comply with the statutory and regulatory provisions other than a loss of EOPS funding from the state. Moreover, there is nothing in the law which prohibits a district from eliminating its EOPS program. Nor is there any requirement that specific opt-out provisions be provided in statute or regulation in order for a district to discontinue a discretionary program.

Furthermore, the Third District Court of Appeal has discussed regulatory interpretation principles at great length and has said “the interpretation of an administrative regulation is subject to the same principles as the interpretation of a statute.”⁶³ However, unlike statutory interpretation, the court stated, “where the language of the regulation is ambiguous, it is appropriate to consider the agency’s interpretation. [Citation] Indeed, we defer to an agency’s interpretation of a regulation involving its area of expertise, “‘unless the interpretation flies in the face of the clear language and purpose of the interpretive provision’ [Citation.]”⁶⁴ Moreover, [t]he language must be construed in the context of the statutory framework as a whole, keeping in mind the policies and purposes of the statute [citation], and where possible the language should be read so as to conform to the spirit of the enactment. [Citation.]’ [Citation.] [¶] Where statutory provisions are unclear, they should be interpreted to achieve the purpose of the statutory scheme and the public policy underlying the legislation. [Citation.]”⁶⁵

Here, the plain language of the test claim statutes makes clear with its “may” language, the requirement for approval of the program by the BOG, and the requirement that the district request the funding; that EOPS was intended to be a voluntary grant program which provides supplemental services and financial assistance to the most disadvantaged students. Legislature has encouraged the districts to participate in EOPS through the provision of substantial funding for the program.

Based on the principles of regulatory construction outlined above, the Commission should read California Code of Regulations, Title 5, section 56210 to conform to the spirit of the test claim statutes and in the context of the statutory framework as a whole. In fact, there is nothing in the regulatory package for section 56210 that even hints at Claimant's interpretation of this regulation. Moreover, the comments submitted by the Chancellor's Office on this test claim make clear that the Chancellor's interpretation is that EOPS is a voluntary program.⁶⁶

In 2003, the California Supreme Court decided the Kern High School Dist. case and considered the meaning of the term "state mandate" as it appears in article XIII B, section 6 of the California Constitution. The school district claimants in Kern participated in various funded programs each of which required the use of school site councils and other advisory committees. The claimants sought reimbursement for the costs from subsequent statutes which required that such councils and committees provide public notice of meetings, and post agendas for those meetings.⁶⁷

When analyzing the term "state mandate," the court reviewed the ballot materials for article XIII B. The ballot materials defined "state mandates" as "requirements imposed on local governments by legislation or executive orders."⁶⁸ The court also reviewed and affirmed the holding of City of Merced,⁶⁹ determining that, when analyzing state-mandate claims, the underlying program must be reviewed to determine if the claimant's participation in the underlying program is voluntary or legally compelled.⁷⁰ The court stated the following:

In City of Merced, the city was under no legal compulsion to resort to eminent domain-but when it elected to employ that means of acquiring property, its obligation to compensate for lost business goodwill was not a reimbursable state mandate, because the city was not required to employ eminent domain in the first place. Here as well, if a school district elects to participate in or continue participation in any underlying voluntary education-related funded program, the district's obligation to comply with the notice and agenda requirements related to that program does not constitute a reimbursable state mandate.⁷¹ (Emphasis in original.)

Thus, the Supreme Court held as follows:

[W]e reject claimants' assertion that they have been legally compelled to incur notice and agenda costs, and hence are entitled to reimbursement from the state, based merely upon the circumstance that notice and agenda provisions are mandatory elements of education-related programs in which claimants have participated, without regard to whether claimant's participation in the underlying program is voluntary or compelled. (Emphasis added.)⁷²

Based on the plain language of the statutes creating the underlying education programs in Kern, the court determined that school districts were not legally compelled by the state to establish school site councils and advisory bodies, or to participate in eight of the nine underlying state and federal programs and, hence, not legally compelled to incur the notice and agenda costs required under the open meeting laws. Rather, the districts elected to participate in the school site council programs to receive funding associated with the programs.⁷³

Claimant asserts that this EOPS test claim and the Merced and Kern case are factually dissimilar and are not legally determinative.⁷⁴ The Commission disagrees. Just as the court did in Kern, the draft staff analysis cited Merced for the general proposition that downstream activities which are requirements of an ongoing elective program are not state-mandated activities. Here, districts are not legally compelled to establish an EOPS program or to request and accept state EOPS funds for that program. Similarly in Kern, districts were not required to establish school site councils or receive funding for the various programs that required such councils.

The plain language of Education Code sections 69649, subdivision (a) and 69650, state that compliance with the EOPS rules and regulations is a condition of receiving state EOPS funding. Education Code section 69649, subdivision (a) states: “[t]he governing board of a community college district may, with the approval of the [BOG], establish an extended opportunity program. Except as provided in subdivision (b), in order to be eligible to receive state funding, the program shall meet the minimum standards established pursuant to subdivision (b) of section 69648.” (Emphasis added.) Likewise, section 69650, subdivision (a) provides: “[t]he governing board of a community college district may, with the approval of the [BOG], establish extended opportunity services. . . .” Moreover, the requirements imposed by title 5, sections 56232, 56234, 56236, 56238 are only imposed on those districts electing to establish an EOPS program and receiving state funding as is evidenced by the fact that each of those sections begins with the phrase: “[e]ach college receiving EOPS funds shall” Therefore, districts are not legally compelled by the state to comply with the requirements of the test claim statutes and executive orders.

Claimant Has Not Demonstrated by Evidence in the Record That it is Practically Compelled to Establish and Maintain an EOPS Program

Claimant also argues that districts are practically compelled to provide EOPS because “in order to receive state funding, the program shall meet the minimum standards established pursuant to subdivision (b) of section 69648.”⁷⁵ Specifically, Claimant states, that:

[t]he Legislature has challenged California community colleges to recognize the need and accept the responsibility for extending opportunities to all who may profit therefrom regardless of economic, social, and educational status. To ignore available funding to help recognize these needs and to ignore their responsibility is so far beyond the realm of practical reality, that it leaves community college districts without any rational discretion.

Claimant cites to the Sacramento II and Kern cases to support its practical compulsion arguments.⁷⁶

In Kern, the school districts made similar arguments and urged the court to define “state mandate” broadly to include situations where participation in the program is practically compelled; where the absence of a reasonable alternative to participation creates a “de facto” mandate.⁷⁷ The court previously applied such a construction to the definition of a federal mandate in the case of Sacramento II, where the court considered whether state statutes enacted as a result of various federal “incentives” for states to extend unemployment insurance coverage to public employees constituted a reimbursable state-mandated program under article XIII B, section 6.⁷⁸ The court in Sacramento II, concluded that the costs resulted from a federal mandate because the financial consequences to the state and its residents of failing to participate in the federal plan (full, double unemployment taxation by both state and federal governments) were so onerous and punitive; amounting to “certain and severe federal penalties” including “double taxation” and “other “draconian” measures.”⁷⁹

The court in Kern stated that although it analyzed the legal compulsion issue, it found it “unnecessary in this case to decide whether a finding of legal compulsion is necessary in order to establish a right to reimbursement under article XIII B, section 6, because we conclude that even if there are some circumstances in which a state mandate may be found in the absence of legal compulsion, the circumstances presented in this case do not constitute such a mandate.”⁸⁰ The court did provide language addressing what might constitute practical compulsion, for instance if the state were to impose a substantial penalty for nonparticipation in a program, as follows:

Finally, we reject claimants’ alternative contention that even if they have not been legally compelled to participate in the underlying funded programs, as a practical matter they have been compelled to do so and hence to incur notice- and agenda-related costs. Although we do not foreclose the possibility that a reimbursable state mandate might be found in circumstances short of legal compulsion — for example, if the state were to impose a substantial penalty (independent of the program funds at issue) upon any local entity that declined to participate in a given program — claimants here faced no such practical compulsion. Instead, although claimants argue that they have had “no true option or choice” other than to participate in the underlying funded educational programs, the asserted compulsion in this case stems only from the circumstance that claimants have found the benefits of various funded programs “too good to refuse” — even though, as a condition of program participation, they have been forced to incur some costs. On the facts presented, the cost of compliance with conditions of participation in these funded programs does not amount to a reimbursable state mandate. (Emphasis in original.)⁸¹

Although the court in Kern declined to apply the reasoning in City of Sacramento II that a state mandate may be found in the absence of strict legal compulsion, after reflecting on the purpose of article XIII B, section 6 – to preclude the state from shifting financial responsibilities onto local agencies – the court stated: “In light of that purpose, we do not foreclose the possibility that a reimbursable state mandate under article XIII B, section 6, properly might be found in some circumstances in which a local entity is not legally compelled to participate in a program that requires it to expend additional funds.”⁸²

However, the court in Kern found that the facts before it failed to amount to such a “de facto” mandate, since a school district that elects to discontinue participation in one of the educational programs at issue did not face “certain and severe” penalties (independent of the program funds at issue)⁸³ such as “double ... taxation” or other “draconian” consequences. The court concluded that:

[T]he circumstances presented in the case before us do not constitute the type of nonlegal compulsion that reasonably could constitute, in claimants’ phrasing, a “de facto” reimbursable state mandate. Contrary to the situation that we described in City of Sacramento ... a claimant that elects to discontinue participation in one of the programs here at issue does not face “certain and severe ... penalties” such as “double ... taxation” or other “draconian” consequences ... but simply must adjust to the withdrawal of grant money along with the lifting of program obligations. Such circumstances do not constitute a reimbursable state mandate for purposes of article XIII B, section 6.⁸⁴

The court acknowledged that a participant in a funded program may be disappointed when additional requirements are imposed as a condition of continued participation in the program. Such conditions, however, do not make the program mandatory or reimbursable under article XIII B, section 6:

Although it is completely understandable that a participant in a funded program may be disappointed when additional requirements (with their attendant costs) are imposed as a condition of continued participation in the program, just as such a participant would be disappointed if the total amount of the annual funds provided for the program were reduced by legislative or gubernatorial action, the circumstances that the Legislature has determined that the requirements of an ongoing elective program should be modified does not render a local entity’s decision whether to continue its participation in the modified program any less voluntary.⁸⁵

The result of the cases discussed above is that, if a local government participates “voluntarily,” i.e., without legal compulsion or compulsion as a practical matter, in a program with a rule requiring increased costs, there is no requirement of state reimbursement. Though Kern suggests “involuntarily” can extend beyond “legal compulsion” to “compelled as a practical matter to participate.” the latter phrase means facing “ ‘certain and severe ... penalties’ such as ‘double ... taxation’ or other ‘draconian’ consequences” and not merely having to “adjust to the withdrawal of grant money along with the lifting of program obligations.”⁸⁶

In this case, pursuant to the analysis put forward in the Kern case, during the course of the reimbursement period, claimant has not been practically compelled to perform the activities required by the test claim statutes and regulations, since the test claim statutes authorized but did not require establishment of an EOPS program, and no “substantial penalties” would be imposed for the district’s failure to establish or decision to dismantle an EOPS program. Moreover, claimant has put no evidence into the record to show that the districts are practically compelled to establish and maintain EOPS programs.

The state has imposed some regulatory requirements upon districts receiving EOPS funds. The incentive, or “carrot,” for community colleges to comply with the regulatory requirements of the EOPS program is the availability of funding to cover the costs of providing educational services to EOPS eligible students; the only consequence is the removal of the funds. There are no other “certain and severe” penalties imposed by law, or evidenced in the record, such as double taxation, or the removal of other, unrelated funding sources, if a district declines to participate in the EOPS program. Like the Court in Kern, a “district will decline participation if and when it determines that the costs of program compliance outweigh the funding benefits.”⁸⁷ Under Kern, when additional requirements are imposed as a condition of participating in a funded program, those conditions do not make the program mandatory or reimbursable under article XIII B, section 6.

Additionally, in the DOF v. Commission case, the court expanded on the issue of what is required to support a finding of practical compulsion.⁸⁸ That case had to do (in part) with whether school districts were practically compelled to hire public safety officers, thus making compliance with the provisions of the Public Safety Officers Procedural Bill of Rights a reimbursable state-mandated program or higher level of service.

Like the record in this test claim, in DOF v. Commission there was no evidence in the record of practical compulsion - that school districts or special districts were not able to rely on the general law enforcement resources of cities and counties or that exercising their statutory authority to hire peace officers was the only reasonable alternative to carrying out their core functions. There, the trial court held the school districts and special districts employ peace officers in order to perform their basic and essential function to provide a service to the public. The Court of Appeal reversed and held that in cases of practical compulsion, there must be a “concrete” showing in the record that a local entity is facing certain and severe penalties, such as double taxation or other draconian consequences, if it fails to exercise the discretionary authority and comply with the downstream requirements imposed by a test claim statute.⁸⁹

These cases support the conclusion that evidence in the record is required to show practical compulsion. Absent such a showing by the claimant, the Commission does not find substantial evidence to support a finding of practical compulsion. Accordingly, the Commission finds that there are no state-mandated activities practically compelled by the test claim statutes and regulations.

II. Education Code section 69656 and California Code of Regulations, title 5, sections 56200, 56201, 56202, 56204, 56220, 56222, 56224, 56226, 56540, 56252, 56292 and the Guidelines Do Not Require Districts to Perform Any Activities

Education Code section 69656 states the intent of the Legislature for the California State University and the University of California to provide fee waivers for admissions applications for EOPS transfer students who provide waiver forms signed by a community college EOPS director. Education Code section 69656, by its plain language, requires no specific action on the part of districts or community colleges.

With regard to Title 5 California Code of Regulations, sections 56200, 56201, 56202, 56204, 56220, 56222, 56224, 56226, 56252, 56292 and the Guidelines, the Commission finds that these sections do not require districts to perform any activities because:

- Title 5 California Code of Regulations, sections 56200-56204 are general provisions and definitions not requiring districts to perform any activities.
- Title 5 California Code of Regulations, sections 56220-56226 relate to student eligibility and responsibility and do not require districts to perform any activities.
- Title 5 California Code of Regulations, section 56252 is a statement of purpose for EOPS financial aid and does not require districts to perform any activities.
- Title 5 California Code of Regulations, section 56292 states that the Chancellor may adjust allocations to correct for an over or under allocation or utilization of EOPS funds, but does not require any district to perform any activities.
- The Guidelines are merely the Chancellor's Offices' interpretation of the regulations that are the subject of this test claim.⁹⁰ The Guidelines specifically state that they "are not regulations" and that "college staff are encouraged to utilize the [G]uidelines in the administration of EOPS program activities."⁹¹

However, assuming arguendo, that the Guidelines are executive orders, they do not add additional requirements as is evidenced by the use of the modifier "should" throughout. Moreover, even if required activities could be identified in the Guidelines, such activities would be requirements of an ongoing elective program which the districts participate in on a voluntary basis and thus would not be reimbursable state-mandated activities.⁹²

⁹⁰ Exhibit A, EOPS Implementing Guidelines for Title 5 Regulations, p. ii.

⁹¹ Exhibit A, EOPS Implementing Guidelines for Title 5 Regulations, p. ii. Note that staff acknowledges that the EOPS Guidelines also say ". . .it is the responsibility of individual colleges to establish local programs, policies and procedures in accordance with the requirements of these policies and other relevant statutes and state regulations." (Emphasis added.) This language is confusing since it appears in a technical assistance/guidance document and all other language in the document is permissive.

⁹² Staff notes that Guidelines page 40, interpreting California Code of Regulations, Title 5, section 56252, requires the EOPS program to notify the college's financial aid office when EOPS students receive book services. This fact does not change the staff analysis since this activity is a downstream activity required as a condition of participation in an ongoing elective program.

CONCLUSION

Staff concludes that the test claim should be denied because the test claim statutes and executive orders do not require the community colleges to perform any state-mandated activities and thus do not impose a state-mandated program on community college districts because:

3. Downstream activities delineated by Education Code sections 69640, 69641, 69641.5, 69643, 69648, 69649, 69652, and 69655, as added or amended by the test claim statutes, California Code of Regulations, title 5, sections 56206, 56208, 56210, 56230, 56232, 56234, 56236, 56238, 56254, 56256, 56258, 56260, 56262, 56264, 56270, 56272, 56274, 56276, 56278, 56280, 56290, 56293, 56295, 56296, 56298 are requirements of an ongoing elective program which the districts participate in on a voluntary basis and thus are not state-mandated activities.
4. Education Code Section 69656, California Code of Regulations, title 5, sections 56200, 56201, 56202, 56204, 56220, 56222, 56224, 56226, 56540, 56252, 56292 and the Guidelines do not require districts to perform any activities and, even if they did, they would be requirements of an ongoing elective program which the districts participate in on a voluntary basis and thus would not be state-mandated activities.

Recommendation

Staff recommends that the Commission adopt this staff analysis to deny the test claim.
