1 SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA

2 FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 2019, 10:00 A.M.

3 ---o0o---

4 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Good morning. The meeting of 5 the Commission on State Mandates will come to order.

6 And, first, I have some housekeeping information.
7 On the table near the end of the dais are copies of the 8 meeting notice, the agenda, new filings, witness list,
9 and the electronic public hearing binder is also located
10 over there, on the laptop.

11 At the witness table, the claimant and local agency
12 interested parties sit facing the center of the dais, 13 and the state agency parties and interested parties sit 14 to the claimant's right.

15 The restrooms are down the hall near the elevators.
16 And, finally, please take note of the emergency exits in 17 this room.

18 Heather, will you please call the roll.

19 MS. HALSEY: Sure.

21 MEMBER ADAMS: Here.

22 MS. HALSEY: Mr. Hariri.

23 MEMBER HARIRI: Here.

24 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Lee.

25 MEMBER LEE: Here.

1 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Miller.

2 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Here.

3 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Olsen.

4 MEMBER OLSEN: Here.

5 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Ramirez.

6 MEMBER RAMIREZ: Here.

7 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Wong-Hernandez.

8 MEMBER WONG-HERNANDEZ: Here.

9 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you.

10 We have a quorum. Everyone is here on time. This 11 is a new high for me.

12 Are there any objections or corrections from the 13 minutes for July 26?

14 MEMBER OLSEN: Move adoption.

15 MEMBER RAMIREZ: Second.

16 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you very much. They 17 have been moved and seconded.

18 And any objection to unanimous...

19 Thank you. The minutes are adopted.

20 MS. HALSEY: You can do a voice vote or a roll
21 call.

22 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Oh, okay. All those in favor
23 of adopting the minutes, signify by saying "aye."

24 (Ayes)

25 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Any opposed? Abstentions?

1 (No response)

2 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you.

3 MS. HALSEY: And now we will take up public comment
4 for matters not on the agenda. Please note that the 5 Commission cannot take action on items not on the 6 agenda. However, it can schedule issues raised by the 7 public for consideration at future meetings.

8 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you, Heather.

9 Is there any public comment?

10 (No response)

11 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Hearing no public comment, we 12 will move to the next item.

13 MS. HALSEY: Moving to the Article 7 portion of the 14 hearing, there are no items on consent today.

15 Item 7, the decision on parameters and guidelines
16 on Public School Restrooms: Feminine Hygiene Products,
17 has been postponed to the November hearing due to the 18 late filing of a declaration by the claimant. Also,
19 staff of the State Controller are present today but do 20 not plan to come to the table for any of the items on 21 this hearing.

22 Will the parties and witnesses for Items 3, 4, 5,
23 6, and 8 please rise.

24 (Parties/witnesses stood to be sworn or 25 affirmed.)

1 MS. HALSEY: Thank you.

2 Item 2 is reserved for appeals of Executive
3 Director decisions. There are no appeals to consider
4 for this hearing.

5 And next is Item 3. Senior Commission Counsel Raj
6 Dixit will present a test claim on new offender parole
7 hearings.

8 At this time, we invite the parties and witnesses
9 for Item 3 to please come to the table.

10 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you. Thank you, Raj.

11 MR. DIXIT: Good morning, ladies and gentlemen.

12 The test claim statutes require the Board of Parole
13 Hearings, a state agency, to conduct a new type of 14 parole hearing: A youth offender parole hearing to 15 review the suitability -- suitability for parole with 16 certain specified exceptions of youthful offenders,
17 those who are 25 or younger at the time of their offense
18 and who are sentenced to 15 or more years in prison; or 19 to youthful offenders who are sentenced to life without 20 the possibility of parole for crimes committed before
21 the age of 18.

22 These test claim statutes were enacted, in part, in 23 response to a series of decisions by the United States
24 and California Supreme Courts and restricted the 25 imposition of such sentences on juveniles.

1 The plain language of the test claim statutes do
2 not impose any state-mandated activities on local 3 agencies. Claimant, however, seeks reimbursement for 4 costs associated with the presentation of evidence at 5 the sentencing hearings of youthful offenders to 6 preserve evidence for eventual youth offender parole
7 hearing review by the Board of Parole Hearings.

8 These presentations, known as Franklin Hearings,
9 are not imposed by the legislature or by any state
10 agency, and do not constitute a state-mandated program
11 for the purposes of Article XIII B, section 6.

12 Furthermore, staff finds that these test claim
13 statutes change the penalty for crimes committed by all 14 youth offender parole hearing eligible offenders, and,
15 therefore, are not eligible for subvention, pursuant to 16 Government Code section 17556(g).

17 Accordingly, staff recommends that the Commission
18 adopt the revised proposed decision denying the test
19 claim.

20 Further, staff requests authorization to make any
21 technical, nonsubstantive changes to the proposed
22 decision following the hearing.

23 Thank you.

24 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you very much, Raj.

25 Would the parties and witnesses please state your

1 name for the record.

2 MS. KARNAVAS: Stephanie Karnavas on behalf of the 3 claimant, the County of San Diego. Thank you very much.

4 MS. ARNOLD: Laura Arnold. I'm the public defender
5 for Stanislaus County.

6 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Great. Thank you very much.

7 MS. GEANACOU: Susan Geanacou, G-E-A-N-A-C-O-U,
8 Department of Finance.

9 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you very much.

10 Is there any public comment on this item?

11 (No response)

12 MS. KARNAVAS: Oh, sorry. I thought you meant from 13 the gallery. This is my first time here. Thank you.

14 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: It is only my second, if it
15 makes you feel better.

16 MS. KARNAVAS: My name is Stephanie Karnavas. I'm 17 here from the County of San Diego. With me is Laura 18 Arnold, who, as she said, is the -- is currently the 19 public defender of Stanislaus County.

20 Laura provided a declaration in support of the 21 County's test claim and is a true subject matter when it
22 comes to the role of the public defender,
23 specifically -- in a lot of areas, but for the issues
24 that we're going to be discussing here today.

25 And so a lot of the discussion, I'm actually going

1 to turn over to her, because I feel like what may be
2 missing from the analysis is, really, an understanding
3 of the practical implications of the youth offender
4 parole statute on what a public defender -- a public
5 defender does and what they have done in their role in 6 the past.

7 At this point, I would just ask Ms. Arnold to 8 please provide the Commission with a brief statement of 9 your background and your qualifications so they 10 understand where you come from.

11 MS. ARNOLD: Hi. This is also my first time here.

12 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Could you state your name one 13 more time.

14 MS. ARNOLD: Laura Arnold.

15 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you, Ms. Arnold.

16 MS. ARNOLD: I'm the public defender for Stanislaus
17 County, having been appointed by the board of 18 supervisors on February 18th of this year, so I'm the 19 brand new department head. Prior to that, for five
20 years, I ran the writs and appeals unit of Riverside
21 County Public Defender's Office. Prior to that, I spent
22 17 years as a deputy public defender in San Diego
23 County. And in addition to that, I spent about a year
24 and a half in private practice in Los Angeles, doing
25 death penalty, habeas work, and complex civil

1 litigation. And I also took appointments -- sorry, I'm 2 going too fast. I also took appointments through the 3 Indigent Criminal Defense Panel and did routine work
4 there.

5 I am the second vice president for the California
6 Public Defenders Association. I chair the Youth
7 Offender Franklin Committee for CPDA. I also chair the 8 Mental Health Civil Commitment Committee for CPDA, and I
9 chair the Amicus Committee for CPDA.

10 If you want something done well, get a busy mom to 11 do it. I also sit, on appointment, by the chief justice
12 of the California Supreme Court on the Criminal Law
13 Advisory Committee to the California Judicial Counsel.

14 So that's my background.

15 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you.

16 Do you want to speak to the -- oh.

17 MS. KARNAVAS: Sorry. So I want to focus our 18 argument, our discussion here today on the two main 19 grounds that are set forth in the proposed decision for 20 denial of the test claim. I'm not going to repeat
21 what's already been presented in our -- in our prior 22 comments, but I would like to respond to some of the 23 response to our comments from the last proposed 24 decision, and also give Laura, again, the opportunity to 25 provide some context from how this works, actually, out

1 on the ground.

2 The Commission's position -- so the first basis on 3 which the Commission has denied the test claim, or has 4 proposed to deny the test claim, is that the statute
5 does not expressly direct or require local agencies to 6 perform the activities, and, therefore, is not 7 cost-mandated by the state. That's set forth in the 8 Government Code section 17514.

9 However, that section defines "costs" broadly, to 10 mean increased costs a local agency is required to incur
11 as a result of any statute. The legislature could have 12 easily just has said, "as expressly provided by a 13 statute," or "as expressly directed by a statute," but 14 they didn't say that. They said "as a result of any 15 statute."

16 And as a lawyer, using the term "as a result of" is 17 generally construed very broadly, I can say, just as 18 general matter. And I think that was the intent here.

19 The -- the Commission relies on the fact that no
20 court has found activities which are not expressly 21 required, by a test claim statute, to be mandated by the 22 state. And that's likely just because the issue hasn't 23 been litigated yet.

24 So as I'm sure you are aware, there's really a
25 dearth of case law that has that -- that addresses

1 mandates. I think that's maybe less than 30 or around
2 that number. So there's a lot of issues that haven't
3 been put before the courts, including, I think, another
4 thing we'll discuss today, which is the interpretation
5 of a section -- of the exceptions in 17556.

6 So the Commission, in its proposed decision, while
7 it claims that the costs flow from the procedures
8 identified by the courts to implement the test claim 9 statutes, the court, in Cook -- the Supreme Court in 10 Cook expressly stated that the proceeding outlined in 11 Franklin, quote, derives from the test claim statutes,
12 particularly sections 3051 and 4801.

13 In other words, if the statutes did not exist, no
14 Franklin proceeding would be required, and, thus, the PD
15 would not need to conduct the investigation, prepare the 16 evidence, and submit the information to the CDCR.

17 There is an exception, which Laura will speak to 18 for -- at true juveniles sentenced to LWOP. But as she 19 can explain better than I can, even if, per the 20 sentencing, the public defender was putting some of the 21 youthful information into the record, they still didn't 22 have an obligation to get that information to the CDCR,
23 which is a minor distinction, but it is a distinction
24 that should be noted with respect to the very limited
25 part of the population that's at issue in these

1 statutes.

2 As a sub-point to the argument that the test claim
3 statutes do not expressly require local agencies to 4 perform any activities, the Commission's proposed
5 decision also makes the point that juvenile offenders
6 have a constitutional right to assistance of counsel for 7 their defense. But what's missing from the proposed
8 decision is any acknowledgment of the fact that public
9 defenders have never been charged with representing 10 defendants in parole proceedings. The obligation to 11 provide counsel of those proceedings, when it is 12 required, has always fallen on the State.

13 So, at this point, I want to turn it over to Laura 14 to explain what the role of defense counsel has been in 15 parole proceedings prior to SB 260.

16 MS. ARNOLD: So when I first saw SB 260 and the 17 youth offender parole statutes, I was the supervisor of 18 the Writs and Appeals Unit in Riverside County.
19 Riverside County has a lot of youthful offenders because 20 they have a lot of gangs, and so we're talking about a 21 large population of people under the age of 26 who get 22 involved in crimes that carry very serious sentences,
23 life sentences, and potentially LWOP sentences. They 24 also were one of the lead counties in terms of direct 25 filing of juvenile cases in adult court, meaning that

1 juvenile -- that during the years of 2000 to 2015, when
2 juvenile cases against juvenile offenders of certain
3 ages, for certain crimes, could circumvent the juvenile 4 court process all together, and the prosecution could
5 just file directly in adult court, Riverside County did
6 it a lot.

7 So when I learned about youth offender parole,
8 honestly, my first thought was, oh, it's a parole thing,
9 and I took -- I passed it off to my parole person, who
10 does parole release habeas work, and I didn't think it
11 was really a big deal. I thought it was a big deal for 12 the State. But I -- I didn't think it affected us at 13 all, to be honest.

14 And at first, I thought, oh, this is a really good
15 thing for the juvenile offenders. I really hope that 16 they program well while they are in prison so that they 17 have a second chance and a meaningful opportunity for 18 release. That's all great.

19 And then I had to present on the Franklin case for 20 the California Attorneys for Criminal Justices appellate
21 seminar in San Francisco. And so I read Franklin, and I
22 still didn't see it. I thought, oh, okay. Caballero
23 claims are now moot because of youthful offender parole.
24 Okay. That sort of makes sense. The legislature has 25 figured out a way to address this constitutional problem

1 for this particular population of juveniles. But then I
2 read on to the remand order, and the remand order
3 directed the -- directed remand of the matter to the 4 superior court, so that trial counsel could put into the 5 record these youthful circumstance factors, this
6 individualized information regarding the child
7 circumstances of the defendant. That wasn't there.

8 And the reason why it wasn't there is because, one,
9 he was convicted of crime. He had a mandatory life
10 sentence. So there was no discretion at the sentencing
11 hearing as to whether or not the judge was going to say,
12 give him probation or give him a mitigated sentence.

13 Two, he has a mandatory gun enhancement allegation,
14 another 25 to life. Again, there was no reason for 15 there to be any conversation of any kind.

16 Third, he was direct filed in adult court; he 17 didn't come through the juvenile court, so there hadn't
18 been any investigation done of his childhood
19 circumstances.

20 And when I read the remand order, and I looked at 21 the parole statutes that existed prior to SB 260, and 22 the parole statutes that -- for youthful offenders, I
23 realized that things had changed dramatically.

24 Prior to SB 260, parole release -- youth
25 circumstances was not a consideration in parole release

1 proceedings, and it was -- and the public defender had 2 no role whatsoever in parole release proceedings. In 3 fact, while the district attorney and crime victims are 4 required, by statute, to be given notice of parole
5 hearings, defense counsel is not required, by statute.
6 We truly do not play any part in that.

7 The way we look at the -- the way that the parole
8 statute is read before SB 260, all that mattered was the 9 crime and the criminal history of the individual and his 10 or her behavior and progress and participation in 11 programming while in the CDCR. We didn't play any part 12 in that.

13 I mean, we're not going to put in information about 14 the facts of the crime; that's already there through the 15 probation report. And the probation department is the 16 investigatory branch of the judiciary. They were the 17 ones who did the investigation regarding the relevant
18 information and put it into a report that should have 19 gone to CDCR. We didn't play any role in that at all.

20 When SB 260 changed the game, and the legislature
21 mandated that the individual's circumstances of youth
22 must be considered and given great weight in these 23 parole release proceedings, we realized that while -- 24 and then the Supreme Court did the remand order in 25 Franklin, that's when we actually -- that's when it

1 clicked for us. And we said, oh, my gosh, we're the 2 people who have the person at the time of sentencing.
3 We're the people that have the ability to get a release
4 of information signed by the person so that we can go
5 ahead and get his school records, get his medical 6 records, his pediatric records. We can get family
7 information from him. We can find out about childhood
8 trauma by interviewing his parents.

9 We're the only people who can do this, and if we 10 don't do it, there's no way that, 25 years from now,
11 anyone is going to be able to recreate it, because these 12 records don't exist forever. They are -- I mean, as 13 soon as someone graduates from high school, all of their 14 school records are destroyed except for the transcript.
15 But those school records are critically important to 16 understanding the developmental issues and the complex
17 trauma that our clients were dealing with and that gave 18 rise to this one terrible decision on this one fateful
19 day. And that's the background under which the law
20 requires that they be considered for parole release.

21 So I went to the California Public Defenders
22 Association board and presented them with this analysis.
23 Everybody in this state agreed, nobody was doing this 24 work. We did a half-day seminar, and then I did a
25 magical mystery tour, going from county to county,

1 explaining Franklin and SB 260, and we started doing it
2 with the limited resources that we had, to the best of
3 our ability. And we realized, even just with the SB 260
4 population, which is true juveniles, under the age of 5 18, that stuff, while in the court file, wasn't in the 6 C-file and couldn't get into the C-file without our 7 intervention.

8 And the reason why is this: Even if they came 9 through juvenile court, and they weren't a direct-file
10 kid, and a full fitness hearing was conducted, and the 11 probation officer was able to do a comprehensive 12 investigation of individual circumstances and file it
13 with the court, that juvenile case file is confidential.
14 And it can -- while it can be disseminated to the DA and 15 it can be disseminated to the judge, it can't be 16 disseminated beyond the enumerated agencies and 17 individuals in Welfare and Institutions Code 827, and 18 the CDCR and the BPH are not.

19 So the only way that information was even going to 20 get from the court file to the CDCR is if we came in, as 21 petitioners, on behalf of our client or our former 22 client, and asked the juvenile court for permission to 23 disseminate it to the CDCR for the purpose of 24 consideration.

25 So even for that -- that's not a huge time

1 commitment, by the way, as things go. Okay? But that
2 was something we had never done before, ever.

3 And so -- and then the -- and then the statute
4 expanded the population. So now we're not only dealing 5 with the purer kids that came through 707 and the 6 direct-file juveniles, those who had charges filed
7 against them in adult court, now we have got adults.
8 Wow. Okay. Adult sentencing is what's considered by 9 the court, is in the rules of court, and I have to tell
10 you, these youth circumstances aren't included. So we 11 did do investigation for our adult sentencing, but it
12 wasn't going back and delving into their childhood,
13 because that wasn't even relevant, we didn't think.
14 Because there wasn't -- the court didn't list these 15 individual youth circumstances. And the probation
16 department didn't do that investigation either because 17 that wasn't relevant to their investigation, which was 18 governed by the rules of court.

19 And we realized that the only way we were going to 20 be able to get these youth circumstances into the 21 C-file, really, is if we did the investigation
22 ourselves, now, while the iron is hot, while those 23 records still exist, while those witnesses can still be 24 located and interviewed, while that stuff can still be 25 absorbed, maybe while our client can still be evaluated

1 by psychologist as to his complex trauma, and put it
2 together into this time capsule for eventual
3 consideration by the BPH.

4 And that's exactly what the Franklin remand
5 requires. And that's what is required in Perez and 6 Cook. Both -- all agree that that's what we have today.

7 How we do it, that's sort of the up to the court,
8 and the Supreme Court acknowledged that in Cook. We can 9 do it with a full-blown hearing, with witnesses and 10 court reporters; or we can do it with something that 11 exists called a Statement of View, which, historically,
12 only dealt with view of the crime, and that was a tool
13 that was only used by prosecutors, because prosecutors,
14 unlike trial counsel, play a very big role in the parole
15 release proceedings, particularly with their life --
16 their life inmates. They are entitled to notice. They 17 want to make sure that relevant information regarding 18 how dangerous the person is gets into the C-file, and 19 they even have teams that go and testify at the 20 institutions, and they bring family members as well at 21 the parole release proceedings.

22 We don't do that. That's never been our job, ever.

23 So we can use that vehicle now to get these time
24 capsules into the C-file, which is less time consuming
25 than the full-blown hearing and, in my opinion, more

1 effective, because a 800-page transcript is never going
2 to be read by anybody, whereas the Statement of View,
3 with some relevant documents, will. But in order to do
4 the Statement of View, we have to do the investigation
5 and we have to process it and we have to then write
6 something that communicates it in a cohesive way so that
7 the BPH and the commissioners can actually comprehend
8 it, given the limited time that they have to prepare for 9 these parole hearings. So it has changed the way we do
10 business dramatically.

11 Is that sufficient?

12 MS. KARNAVAS: Yeah. I think --

13 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: I'm going to --

14 MS. KARNAVAS: Oh. A comment.

15 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: No, please. If you want to 16 wrap it up.

17 MS. KARNAVAS: I was going to say, I think that,
18 kind of, the net of what I hope is coming across is that 19 this really, substantially expanded the services that 20 need to be provided by a public defender, as a matter of 21 statute, not because of the constitution. These -- 22 these new obligations that are being posed -- imposed on 23 the public defender are a result of the statute. And I
24 know there's been an argument that it's, you know, a 25 court mandate. I think that that argument has been

1 dropped from the current proposed decision.

2 But I understand it's complex because you have a
3 court interpreting the law and then it's -- you are sort
4 of trying to figure out, okay, what's the court saying
5 versus what do the statutes say.

6 But I think the California Supreme Court was clear:
7 The requirement to perform a Franklin proceeding derives
8 from the statute. And so...

9 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: So I think -- so I do want to 10 be clear on what -- the pieces we can discuss.

11 Ms. Geanacou, do you want to go ahead and -- do you
12 have any comments from Finance?

13 MS. GEANACOU: Susan Geanacou, Department of 14 Finance.

15 We support the Commission's staff analysis on this 16 and recommend denial of the test claim for the reasons
17 stated in the analysis.

18 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you.

19 And I really appreciate that and am really grateful
20 for your work. It's remarkable. Unfortunately, all we 21 can talk about today -- and you are right about the 22 statute. But in terms of whether or not the statute
23 went beyond Franklin, that that isn't at issue today.
24 And the Franklin requirements that we're all aware of 25 and that you are instituting -- that hopefully will do

1 exactly what you are saying and help you -- we only
2 have -- you know, we can only look at the factors of the 3 test claim that are laid out here. So it's not -- it's 4 not -- it's such a global view of -- even though what
5 you are presenting is fascinating, that all we can look
6 at here are very specific pieces of the case. So I do
7 appreciate that.

8 Are there any --

9 MS. HALSEY: Might it be helpful for Commission
10 staff to respond to that first part, before we go to the 11 second piece of their argument?

12 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Please. That would be great.
13 Heather, do you want to do that or Mr...

14 MR. DIXIT: If I may. Thank you, ladies and 15 gentlemen.

16 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you.

17 MR. DIXIT: Having been a public defender myself
18 for several years, and having briefly been a district
19 attorney in Stanislaus County, I am fully sympathetic to 20 what Ms. Karnavas and Arnold are stating. However, that 21 cannot allow the analysis to be swayed.

22 The idea that as a result of a statute would create 23 a mandate is simply untenable. That's not a catch-all
24 provision, or else every statute would impose a mandate.
25 It has been said that, in re Cook, the Franklin

1 proceedings derive from the test claim statutes; that
2 was stated in re Cook. But, yet again, that's merely a
3 part of the sentencing process, and these youth offender
4 parole hearings have drastically changed the penalties
5 for crimes, and, therefore, are exempt under 17556(g).

6 And in terms of this Franklin process requiring 7 that certain elements be proven up or preserved, an 8 analogy would be the three strikes law. When the three 9 strikes law was passed, it created new requirements on 10 DAs and public defenders. And for a three-strikes trial
11 upon conviction, if the person was convicted, the DA
12 would have to prove up the strike priors to -- there 13 would be a separate proceeding after the guilt phase of 14 the underlying crime. The DA was responsible to prove 15 up priors. Or when gun enhancements and the gang
16 enhancements, when those became new statutes, they 17 required additional proof from DAs to prove them up and 18 additional responsibilities on PDs to defend against 19 them. Yet, none of those were mandates, as they changed
20 the penalties for a crime. And these Franklin
21 proceedings, as parole is a natural and necessary part 22 of the penalty and process of a crime, these are an 23 inherent responsibility. Just as proving up or 24 defending against strike priors did not create a mandate
25 for public defenders and DAs, it did impose more

1 responsibilities, but they weren't mandated; they
2 weren't reimbursable. And the same analogy applies
3 here.

4 Ms. Arnold made the comment that public defenders
5 have never represented defendants at parole hearings.

6 Our response would be, exactly. The test claim
7 statutes don't impose any activities, any mandated
8 activities, on local agencies. They only impose
9 mandated activities on the BPH, which is a state agency.

10 In terms of having no discretion in sentencing, a 11 proper analogy would be, what criminal attorneys, both 12 prosecution and defense have always done, is pleadings,
13 factors in aggravation and mitigation at sentencing.
14 Assume, hypothetically, a world where judges did have 15 discretion. There were no three strikes or judges had 16 very broad discretion to sentence defendants to a
17 wide -- wide range of years.

18 If that were the case, then both the DA and the 19 public defender would be responsible to present factors
20 in aggravation on behalf of the DA and factors in 21 mitigation on behalf of defense counsel at sentencing,
22 and that would be part of the penalty process. It would 23 be a greater duty and not reimbursable.

24 And, in fact, public defenders -- which I was one,
25 and a DA, which I was one briefly -- have had to present

1 such information in cases that aren't three strikes.
2 Not every case is a three-strikes case. Not every --
3 many cases are general felonies, where there is a
4 range -- lower, middle, and upper term -- and there's a
5 possibility that aggravating or mitigating factors would 6 be considered. In those cases, the defense counsel was 7 obligated by the duty to not only represent the 8 defendant, to present factors in mitigation if such 9 could be found.

10 And that's in the California Rules of Court and the 11 statute, and it's not a mandate. It's part of the 12 responsibility of being a defense attorney.

13 So parole is part of the sentence and changes to it
14 are a change in penalty and exempt under 17556(g).

15 And Cook referenced Penal Code 1203.01. Ms. Arnold
16 said that, historically, that's only been used by DAs.
17 That may be true, in her experience, but the plain 18 language of 1203.01 makes it clear, that section is 19 available to both sides. 1203.01 allows either the 20 district attorney or the attorney for the defendant may 21 submit information pursuant to 1203.01, and they always 22 have been able to do so. The fact that, de facto, this 23 information wasn't being done, because of the essential
24 futility of it, can't change our analysis here. This 25 mechanism has always existed, and this is pursuant to a

1 change in the penalty for a -- for a broad swath of 2 crimes, just as three strikes was.

3 And on that same logic and same rationale, it is 4 respectfully submitted that this is -- this is not a
5 state-mandated activity and subvention cannot be 6 granted; these are not reimbursable.

7 Thank you.

8 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you.

9 Are there any further comments? Ms. Shelton?

10 MS. SHELTON: Just to bring it back, to circle back
11 to the mandate elements, we have had a lot of the test
12 claims before the Commission that seek reimbursement for 13 activities that occur as a result of the statute.

14 The courts have not focused on 17514 for the 15 mandate issue. For that element, for the mandate
16 element, they looked at who is imposing the cost. On 17 page 55, particularly footnote 289, we list all the 18 cases there. And they say, from County of Los Angeles
19 vs. State of California, that it has to be legislation 20 enacted by the state or executive orders enacted by any 21 state agency.

22 Long Beach Unified School District, we understand
23 the use of the word "mandates" as an ordinary -- as an 24 order or a command.

25 In Hayes, it was talking about whether the State

1 imposed the mandate or the federal government imposed
2 the mandate.

3 And in CSBA, again, talking about whether the 4 voters opposed the mandate or the state or any
5 legislature or any state agency imposed the mandate.

6 So when you are looking at the mandate element and 7 isolating that element, the courts are looking at who is 8 imposing that mandate. And that is the purpose of this 9 analysis as the first element.

10 I think Mr. Dixit adequately summarized the 11 subsequent finding on 17556(g). If any of the elements
12 to reimbursement under XIII B, section 6, are not met,
13 then this Commission is required to deny the test claim.

14 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Right.

15 Thank you for that clarification, Ms. Shelton.

16 Ms. Arnold, do you want to respond?

18 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Or Ms. Karnavas?

19 MS. KARNAVAS: Yes. I will have Ms. Arnold respond
20 to the comments by Mr. Dixit, and then I have got some 21 comments as well.

22 MS. ARNOLD: I tried to write them down as I heard
23 them.

24 The analogy to the three strikes law fails with 25 respect to, it's always been an initiative, so it's

1 automatically exempt and can't be a mandate. But, more
2 importantly, what the three strikes law did is it
3 actually changed the punishment. It changed the 4 sentence. People who would have been formerly looking
5 at a determinant term, meaning a finite amount of years,
6 we're now looking at a life sentence in prison.

7 This -- the youth offender parole statutes do not
8 do that. They don't change punishment at all. What 9 they do is they mandate a parole release consideration
10 hearing after a particular number of years.

11 While parole is part of the sentence that -- a
12 person who is serving a life sentence who is paroled
13 remains on parole for life. In other words, they are 14 still a CDCR inmate. They are just not actually inside
15 of prison. They are still in custody of the CDCR for 16 the rest of their life; they just had a change of 17 scenary.

18 Nothing about the youth offender parole statute
19 guarantees that any individual who qualifies as a 20 youthful offender will be released prior to their 21 otherwise sentenced termination date.

22 And I think that it's somewhat illogical to --
23 well, while there's definitely authority that says
24 lengthening a period of parole is increasing penalty for 25 purposes of ex post facto analysis, no case law says

1 that the opportunity for parole release consideration at 2 a particular time changes the punishment, and, in fact,
3 the Supreme Court, in 2012, in a case called People
4 versus Brown looked at accelerated credits in Penal Code
5 section 4019. And the issue there was whether, under 6 the rule of Estrada, it should apply retroactively,
7 because it ameliorates punishment. Okay? And they
8 said, it's not. The reduction credits does not apply
9 under Estrada retroactively, because it does not lessen
10 the punishment for the offense, so that argument also 11 fails.

12 It is -- Franklin sentencing, or the ability to put 13 into a record the youth circumstances, is not a part of 14 the criminal proceeding, unlike an actual sentencing
15 hearing, where the judge has the authority to do
16 something in terms of what sentence is 17 imposed usually -- sometimes he doesn't; sometimes it's 18 a mandatory life sentence, and it doesn't matter what 19 circumstances in aggravation or mitigation may exist.
20 The court has not discretion; the legislature has 21 mandated a particular sentence.

22 Unlike a sentencing hearing, where a judge has the 23 opportunity to change the sentence or decide a sentence,
24 in a Franklin proceeding, the sentence is decided. It's 25 already been imposed. All that the judge can do in a

1 Franklin proceeding is receive information and have the 2 clerk send it off to the CDCR. So it's nothing like a
3 sentencing hearing and it's not part of the court's
4 Sixth Amendment duty of defense counsel. It's never -- 5 nothing like this has ever existed anywhere, actually.

6 The factors in aggravation and mitigation which
7 were discussed by Mr. Dixit -- is that correct?

8 MR. DIXIT: Dixit.

9 MS. ARNOLD: Okay. The factors in aggravation and 10 mitigation, I did mention. Those are in the rules of 11 court. They do not include any of the youthful 12 circumstance information that's required to be 13 considered and given great weight by the BPH at the 14 youth offender parole hearing. Therefore, they would 15 not be included in a statement in mitigation.

16 I want to -- I think that's all that I had in 17 response.

18 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: I appreciate that.

19 I'm going to open it up to the Commission.

20 Ms. Karnavas, do you want to make a -- any type of 21 observation? And then we still have questions.

22 MS. KARNAVAS: Sure.

23 Just to respond briefly to the 17556 argument,
24 suffice it to say, we disagree with the interpretation
25 of that section. It is not an issue that's been

1 litigated, so we don't have the benefit of a court
2 opinion providing some analysis. There's nothing that I
3 could find in the legislative history that sheds any 4 light on what exactly the legislature intended by that 5 language.

6 But one thing I don't think Mr. Dixit addressed --
7 and, first of all, we disagree that the -- giving an 8 individual the opportunity to have a hearing, making
9 them eligible, does not equal suitable. And so we would 10 disagree that this is a change in penalty. And I
11 think -- I don't want to repeat what Laura has already 12 said, but we disagree with that, as an initial matter.

13 Additionally, 17556(g) specifically says -- it
14 talks to -- it says -- the Commission shall not find
15 costs mandated by the state in any claim submitted by a
16 local agency. If the Commission finds the statute
17 created a new crime or infraction, eliminated a crime or 18 infraction, or changed the penalty for a crime or 19 infraction, but only for that portion of the statute
20 relating directly to the enforcement of the crime or 21 infraction.

22 And I just don't -- I understand -- the support
23 that the Commission gave for the argument that this 24 is -- this should be considered, quote, directly related 25 to enforcement, is essentially a definition within

1 Black's Law Dictionary.

2 And I think the commonly understood -- and I
3 understand that that -- the Commission, in prior 4 opinions, has interpreted directly to the enforcement of 5 the crime very broadly to basically include anything
6 having to do with a crime: The detention, the arrest,
7 the -- the prosecution, the sentence.

8 And I think that is an extremely overbroad way to 9 define "enforcement," which, in the law enforcement
10 context, has a generally understood meaning as meaning
11 actual law enforcement activities, and not going all --
12 not extending all the way to, you know, after sentence,
13 into a parole situation.

14 So I think the position taken by the Commission in 15 the proposed decision, on that point, is really not 16 supported by anything that should be persuasive, should 17 be considered persuasive.

18 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you for that.

19 Let me -- we will still be able to entertain some 20 comments.

21 MS. KARNAVAS: Sure.

22 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Let's open it up to the 23 Commission to see if there's any questions or comments.

24 Ms. Ramirez.

25 MEMBER RAMIREZ: I would like to hear you first.

1 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Ms. Wong-Hernandez.

2 MEMBER WONG-HERNANDEZ: I have a lot of questions.
3 We will tag-team this.

4 Thank you all for being here, and I appreciate the 5 time everybody has taken with all this. I have some 6 questions that I would like to ask that are a little -- 7 a little broader about, sort of, the higher level of 8 service aspect.

9 So I found Mr. Dixit's arguments compelling
10 about -- that the level of service being provided, sort
11 of, by defense counsel, by the public defenders, is 12 essentially to mount a competent defense, you know, of 13 your client.

14 And so I -- I would like somebody to speak to, sort
15 of, how the imposition of these new statutes makes you
16 perform at higher levels. I get that there are new 17 tasks involved in that defense, because, ostensibly, you
18 would want your client -- if you are defending him or 19 her to be able to get -- if once they have been 20 convicted, you know, the quickest opportunity for 21 parole, or the -- or the most reduced sentence, whatever
22 those factors are. I get that you would take additional 23 steps to put things on the record that you might not 24 have in a determinant sentence world.

25 But can you make the argument for me that this is

1 a -- this is fundamentally a higher level of service?
2 Do you understand what I mean, sort of, philosophically.

3 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Yeah. And it speaks
4 specifically to the Commission's mandate --

5 MEMBER WONG-HERNANDEZ: Sure.

6 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: -- on Ms. Wong-Hernandez's
7 question, about the -- because we're not able to look at 8 it sort of in the global way that you are presenting.
9 We have very specific statutes that guide our work. So
10 it's -- and I think that will get --

11 MEMBER WONG-HERNANDEZ: Yes.

12 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: That's kind of what the 13 Commission is able to speak to.

14 MEMBER WONG-HERNANDEZ: Sorry. Just -- that more
15 work doesn't necessarily equal a higher level of 16 service. And so that's what why I am trying to figure 17 out the distinction that is important to us up here.

18 MS. ARNOLD: So I am speaking now as to what our 19 Sixth Amendment constitutional obligation is. Okay?
20 And I don't consider this to be part of that. So I'm 21 going to talk about that.

22 MEMBER WONG-HERNANDEZ: Sure.

23 MS. ARNOLD: The case law has established that if a
24 client is faced with the death penalty, trial counsel
25 has an obligation to do what we call mitigation

1 investigation. And that does include delving into the 2 client's childhood circumstances: It includes looking
3 at generational information, parents' background,
4 grandparents' background, but it is a very small
5 percentage of our cases. And for adult -- and 6 it's actually none of our youthful offenders at all.

7 So we -- so there we do -- in that tiny population
8 of cases, public defenders have done mitigation
9 investigation for years, ever since the Supreme Court --
10 or the courts have determined that we have to, and,
11 quite frankly, probably some did it on their own
12 beforehand, because they cared. I mean, they cared. We 13 sometimes do more than the Sixth Amendment requires,
14 because we care, obviously.

15 What we didn't do, and didn't have to do, was 16 mitigation investigation in a case that resolved with a
17 stipulated sentence, meaning that the two parties came 18 together and the client was looking at life, and we 19 said, how about 18 years at 85 percent. That's a 20 youthful offender. It's a stipulated sentence; the 21 judge has no discretion at the time of the sentencing.
22 And so there would be no reason to do any kind of 23 background investigation in a case like that.

24 I thought -- coming from San Diego, I was trained,
25 because we care, that -- and we have a lot of resources,

1 quite frankly. I was trained that on these serious
2 cases, you do want to understand your client, because 3 you need to be able to figure out why your -- you know,
4 you need to use that to try and negotiate with the 5 district attorney.

6 Then I moved to Riverside County, where they didn't
7 have enough investigators and they didn't have resources
8 and they were core Sixth Amendment, and they did exactly
9 what the Sixth Amendment required. They focused on the 10 guilt. They focused on guilt and innocence. They 11 focused on reasonable doubt. They focused on how are 12 they going to defend against the charges and not so much 13 on negotiation, because that wasn't the culture, and 14 there weren't resources to do the investigation. But 15 even if there had been, there wasn't an audience for 16 that information. The district attorney's office at -- 17 for many, many years there, wasn't open to conversations
18 in gang cases about plea bargaining.

19 So I saw the culture there. And it was a -- I was 20 shell-shocked, because I thought everybody did it like 21 we did it in San Diego. And then I learned that most 22 counties actually don't, because the Sixth Amendment
23 doesn't require them to, and they are not able to get 24 resources from their boards, from their -- funding from 25 their general fund to have the staffing to do the

1 extra-frills-type work.

2 So does that answer your question?

3 MEMBER WONG-HERNANDEZ: That's helpful.

4 So, Ms. Arnold, where I am struggling is the idea
5 that this is -- that there are new opportunities for 6 parole, that will be open to certain offenders, youth
7 offenders, at a certain point in time, based on these 8 new statutes and court rulings, and there's -- there's 9 some layers of interaction.

10 That being able to utilize that tool seems very 11 similar to me to variance among cases, right? You are 12 going to defend someone who is being prosecuted for 13 shoplifting differently than you are going to defend 14 someone who is being prosecuted for murder. You are 15 going to spend different time -- a different amount of 16 time, you know, looking into plea bargains or 17 investigating the circumstances or -- that, basically,
18 that each case varies, but you mount a defense for that 19 case.

20 And I guess, with the additional tools that this
21 affords, to help the court and future parole hearing
22 officers understand your client, I still am struggling
23 with how -- how that additional tool becomes a higher
24 level of service to the public.

25 MS. ARNOLD: Okay. So I think the difference is

1 that -- it's not so much that they are eligible for
2 release on parole, because we have got tons of clients
3 who are eligible for release on parole, and we have had 4 a vehicle through which to put information into the 5 record, whether it's been commonly used or not, which is 6 1203.01. The change, I think, that changed -- that
7 increased the duty was the change in the release
8 criteria.

9 MEMBER WONG-HERNANDEZ: Okay.

10 MS. ARNOLD: Okay? So I don't know that 40 -- it's 11 not 3051. It's, like, the 4800 statute, the one that 12 talks about what the parole board must consider.

13 The change in the release criteria is what put on 14 us an obligation to do something that had never been 15 done before, which is, get this childhood stuff together
16 and put it into the record, and get it off to the CDCR,
17 even if we're dealing with a 25-year-old.

18 MEMBER WONG-HERNANDEZ: So if the parole board --
19 Board of Parole Hearings with CDCR is doing these 20 hearings now, how are they doing it without that record?

21 MS. ARNOLD: Well, they are. So what they are 22 relying on right now is just generalized -- so they are 23 being educated about adolescent brain development
24 generally, and they really are. And I think that, to 25 some degree, they are being educated about complex

1 trauma, generally.

2 But what they don't have before them is the 3 person's develop -- individual circumstances that 4 informed his or her behavior, and that disallows the 5 comparison of subsequent growth and maturity, which is 6 one of the criteria.

7 And that really is the critical one, because I
8 don't think -- I mean, the Supreme Court, certainly,
9 didn't think that the generalized social science about 10 adolescent brain development was adequate to fulfill the 11 mandate of the youth offender parole statute.

12 Otherwise, they wouldn't have remanded it, right? And I
13 wouldn't be sitting here.

14 I would say, let's just assume that all of them
15 were adolescents and their brains weren't done
16 developing. Let's go ahead and assume all of them had 17 complex trauma, because, come on -- right? -- they did.
18 And let's assume that all of them also were exposed to 19 numerous adverse childhood experiences that delayed
20 their development even further beyond that of a normal
21 person. That still doesn't show you subsequent growth
22 and maturity, because it's -- you can't look at a pool
23 of individuals and make that analysis. Or at least, the 24 Supreme Court in Franklin and in Cook and the court of 25 appeal, in Perez, didn't interpret it that way.

1 And so because of that, we have to get involved.
2 If we didn't have to do individual stuff, then it would
3 be up to the State to educate the Board of Parole
4 Hearings about adolescent brain development, and we
5 wouldn't be involved, the way we used to not be 6 involved.

7 MEMBER WONG-HERNANDEZ: Thank you.

8 MS. KARNAVAS: And so just to add on briefly, I
9 think the point that I was trying to make earlier is 10 that, in terms of a higher level of service, you are 11 talking about the PD now being involved in the parole
12 process. Despite the fact that it's -- which they have 13 never historically been involved in. So it's -- this 14 information is not being used for purposes of defense of 15 their client in the case.

16 It's being used 20 -- 15, 20 years down the road
17 for the reasons that were articulated by the Board of 18 Parole Hearings, or that were articulated by the youth
19 offender parole statutes --

20 MEMBER WONG-HERNANDEZ: But it's being put on the 21 record at the time of sentencing, right?

22 MS. KARNAVAS: Sorry?

23 MEMBER WONG-HERNANDEZ: It's being put on the 24 record at the time of sentencing.

25 MS. KARNAVAS: At or near the time of sentencing,

1 the court could basically -- you would have to do that.
2 Otherwise, how could the Board of Parole Hearings
3 actually take into consideration the factors that they
4 are required to? If it's not at the time, it's not 5 going to get done.

6 MEMBER WONG-HERNANDEZ: Okay. Thank you.

7 MS. SHELTON: Just a couple of things. And you can 8 look at this on page 7. And these are statements from 9 different courts:

10 One, in Franklin, recognized that the test claim 11 statutes, by operation of law, superseded the 12 statutorily mandated sentences by capping the number of 13 years the offender may be in prison before becoming 14 eligible for release on parole.

15 In People vs. Garcia, the test claim statute has,
16 in effect, abolished de facto life sentences for 17 juvenile offenders.

18 So it falls within the plain language of 17556(g),
19 just based on those two interpretations by the court.

20 There's no doubt that the County has to perform
21 these new services, and there's no doubt that they have 22 to do it. It's just doesn't fall within the elements of 23 mandated reimbursement.

24 MS. ARNOLD: And I would agree with regard --

25 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Maybe let Mr. Dixit respond,

1 please.

2 MR. DIXIT: Just briefly.

3 To reiterate what Ms. Shelton said, and to use
4 Ms. Arnold's own example, the example of a person facing 5 25 to life, a youth offender who plea bargained out for 6 an 18-year sentence, well, under the test claim statute,
7 that person would now be eligible for parole in 15
8 years. They are not guaranteed they would get it, but 9 under prior law, if you pled a term years -- 18 years,
10 85 percent, you were doing 18 years at 85 percent,
11 period.

12 Now, with the test claim statute, you are eligible
13 for parole, if you are a youth offender, after 15 years
14 of incarceration. That's a change in penalty.

15 All juveniles previously who were getting life
16 without parole, without any hope of release in this 17 lifetime, who were condemned to die in a cell, now have 18 a meaningful opportunity to be paroled. That's a change
19 in penalty.

20 Previously juvenile offenders who were sentenced
21 because of the numerous enhancements to decades
22 before -- 35 to life, 45 to life -- now that's capped at 23 25 before they are eligible for a parole hearing.
24 That's a substantive change in penalty.

25 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Right.

1 MR. DIXIT: And interesting -- interesting to note
2 that the test claim statute itself, at 3051 -- Penal
3 Code 3051(f)(1), when it talks about assessing the 4 growth and maturity and psychological evaluations, if 5 used by the Board of Parole Hearings, those should be 6 administered by a licensed psychologist employed by the 7 Board of Parole Hearings. So even the test claim
8 statute contemplated that the board itself would be 9 doing --

10 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Right.

11 MR. DIXIT: -- some of these evaluations.

12 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Right.

13 And I do want to just clarify that the State itself
14 didn't establish the process to create the record for 15 the youthful offender.

16 I do hear what you are saying, Ms. Arnold. But,
17 you know, this -- it's not -- we only have this very 18 small area of law that we can look at to determine the 19 mandate. And because, you know, the State itself
20 hasn't -- even though, practically, I understand what 21 you are saying, where you have to do all this research
22 that you didn't previously have to do, the State
23 actually didn't set that up.

24 Just to clarify your question, are you talking
25 about the 5700 youthful offenders that are in prison,

1 that are going to be subject to the new -- the Franklin
2 ruling? Or are you saying, even going forward, this 3 isn't -- it wouldn't be a change in practice for the 4 public defenders?

5 MS. SHELTON: Let me clarify. I think she's 6 referring to, the 5700 was in a committee analysis for 7 the 2013 bill that identified the number of offenders
8 that were already in prison.

9 MS. ARNOLD: Oh, so the Cook population.

10 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Okay.

11 MS. SHELTON: Yes.

12 MS. ARNOLD: So the Cook population is actually -- 13 is much greater than 5700, because it now includes all 14 of the under-25-year-olds that it didn't have this 15 information put into their record.

16 So the question is, am I saying -- I mean, in cases
17 going forward as of the date of the youth offender
18 parole statutes, of SB 260, whatever that population was 19 on that given day, because it's changed --

20 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Right.

21 MS. ARNOLD: -- that duty had existed in cases
22 going forward.

23 After Cook, that duty exists as soon as somebody
24 files a motion for a -- a Cook motion for a Statement of 25 View, and were reappointed, and now we have to try and

1 go back in time and recover information that nobody
2 necessarily put -- grabbed, because no one ever thought
3 it would be relevant to anything. Right? And like we 4 would in a death penalty case, with a 50-year-old, who
5 we are trying to recreate what he was when he was 15
6 years old. And it's extremely difficult work and it's 7 very resource-intensive, and but for the youth offender
8 parole statutes, we wouldn't be doing it.

9 I think that the argument about penalty -- I was 10 going to concede that I think that taking a juvenile -- 11 taking a life without possibility of parole sentence,
12 and making it a life with possibility of parole
13 sentence, that changes; that is a change in penalty. I
14 think that it's a very reasonable thing to conclude.

15 But just like possibility for credits earning 16 doesn't change penalty, I don't think possibility for 17 parole consideration changes penalty, because it doesn't 18 actually change the sentence. It simply creates the 19 possibility for a consideration, and the fact of the 20 matter is that most of the people coming up the youth
21 offender parole are not being released because they have 22 more -- they are damaged, and they have more work to do.

23 But at least now, because of SB 260 and the other
24 youth offender parole statutes, eventually, the decision
25 making will be informed by the perfect storm that gave

1 rise to the criminal act that resulted in their
2 commitment to prison, and hopefully that will diminish
3 culpability the way that the legislature intended it to.
4 And we all know that that's what these statutes were 5 intended to do, recognize the diminished culpability of 6 youth.

7 So I think we're getting there, but I think without 8 the individual information, there's a big -- there's a
9 big gap in what the legislature intended.

10 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: I appreciate that. Thank you
11 very much.

12 Any further questions, Ms. Garcia -- or 13 Ms. Ramirez? I'm sorry.

14 MEMBER RAMIREZ: At least you didn't say Rodriguez.

15 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: I'm so sorry.

16 MEMBER RAMIREZ: Thank you.

17 First of all, I want to -- I am really just 18 fascinated by the argument, pro and con. And I want to 19 congratulate you particularly, Ms. Arnold, for your 20 stunning career defending people who are in need of 21 fantastic representation.

22 We're dealing with some very huge social issues
23 here, and it comes down to whether or not the government
24 and the legislature provided the resources. I think 25 whatever manner -- either at the county level or the

1 state level -- to not just say people are entitled to
2 justice, but provided -- provided through human beings,
3 such as the both of you.

4 I really want to allow this, but we are in such a
5 very difficult situation with the statute's
6 requirements. And I always do respect the work of our 7 staff on -- I may just vote to let you get the 8 reimbursement just because I'm so compelled with your 9 argument, but I think we do have the limitation of the 10 statute, which, to me, it's always let's go back to the 11 legislature and get some more money. But that's not our 12 role.

14 MEMBER RAMIREZ: Right?

15 It's the role of your people, your association,
16 your community, to deal with these things that cost
17 everybody so much later on if we don't take care of it
18 at the early stage, before people get into trouble.

19 So I do want to congratulate everybody for the high
20 level of argument here.

21 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: I absolutely agree with that
22 Ms. Ramirez.

23 And I think, you know, this obviously isn't a
24 policy hearing, where we are talking about what's right
25 for the people that you obviously so honorably defend.

1 I mean, we really have a very narrow view of what we can
2 and can't decide at the hearing, and we're very limited
3 by the statutes. And I know that you can appreciate how 4 difficult that is.

5 Are there any other questions or comments from the 6 Commission?

7 Mr. Adams, please.

8 MEMBER ADAMS: I feel a need to point out, as 9 Ms. Ramirez did, that I, too, am sympathetic after a
10 26-year career in law enforcement. At the county level, 11 I certainly understand the realistic day-to-day of what 12 you are dealing with.

13 I think what would be very helpful to us is to have 14 the courts weigh in on 17556, because that text after 15 the last comma is really problematic. But, again, as 16 has been said, we have such a narrow window here.

17 So thanks.

18 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you very much.

19 Any other questions or comments from the 20 Commission?

21 (No response)

22 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Anyone else in the public that 23 want to comment or weigh in?

24 (No response)

25 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Okay. With that, any further

1 discussion? Anything else?

2 We really do appreciate you being here today.

3 Thank you.

4 Is there a motion?

5 (No response)

6 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: I am going to move to adopt
7 the staff's recommendation.

8 MEMBER WONG-HERNANDEZ: I will second.

9 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you.

10 It has been moved by me and seconded by 11 Ms. Wong-Hernandez.

12 Since there is no further discussion, Heather,
13 please call the roll.

14 MS. HALSEY: Mr. Adams.

15 MEMBER ADAMS: Aye.

16 MS. HALSEY: Mr. Hariri.

17 MEMBER HARIRI: Aye.

18 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Lee.

19 MEMBER LEE: Aye.

20 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Miller.

21 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Aye.

22 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Olsen.

23 MEMBER OLSEN: Aye.

24 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Ramirez.

25 MEMBER RAMIREZ: No.

1 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Wong-Hernandez?

2 MEMBER WONG-HERNANDEZ: Aye.

3 MS. HALSEY: Thank you.

4 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: That motion -- that motion
5 carried.

6 And, again, we sincerely appreciate your service
7 and what you are doing to make a huge difference in our 8 state and are very, very grateful. Thank you.

9 MS. ARNOLD: Thank you.

10 MS. KARNAVAS: Thank you.

11 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: And thank you to the 12 Commission. I really appreciate it. And to Mr. Dixit
13 and to Heather as well.

14 MS. HALSEY: Next is Item 4. Senior Commission
15 Counsel Raj Dixit will present a mandate -- a Request
16 for Mandate Redetermination on High School Exit
17 Examination.

18 At this time, we invite the parties and witnesses
19 for Item 4 to please come to the table.

20 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you very much.

21 Will the parties and witnesses please state your 22 names for the record.

23 MS. GRANT: Lina Grant, Department of Finance.

24 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Great. Thank you very much.
25 Mr. Dixit.

1 MR. DIXIT: Thank you.

2 Good morning again, ladies and gentlemen.

3 This mandate redetermination requests that a new 4 test claim decision be adopted to replace the 5 Commission's prior decision on the High School Exit Exam
6 program based on subsequent change in law. This is the 7 second hearing under the mandate redetermination
8 process.

9 Staff finds that the State's liability has been 10 modified based on a subsequent change in law.
11 Specifically, the suspension of the exam, as subsequent 12 repeal of the statutes and regulations implementing the 13 program mean that the activities previously determined
14 to impose a reimbursable mandate are no longer mandated 15 by the State, and, thus, no longer constitute a
16 reimbursable State-mandated program within the meaning
17 of XIII B, section 6. Staff recommends that the 18 Commission adopt the proposed decision and this new test
19 claim decision, ending reimbursement for the mandated 20 program beginning July 1st, 2016.

21 Further, staff requests authorization to make any
22 technical, nonsubstantive changes to the proposed
23 decision following the hearing.

24 Thank you.

25 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you, Mr. Dixit.

1 Is there any comment on this item? Ms. Grant?

2 MS. GRANT: Department of Finance agrees with the
3 staff recommendation.

4 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you very much.

5 Are there any questions from members?

6 (No response)

7 MEMBER OLSEN: So move.

8 MEMBER WONG-HERNANDEZ: Go ahead.

9 MEMBER OLSEN: Move the staff recommendation.

10 MEMBER WONG-HERNANDEZ: Second.

11 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Moved by Ms. Olsen. Seconded
12 by Ms. Wong-Hernandez.

13 If there are no further questions or discussion,
14 Heather, please call the roll.

15 MS. HALSEY: Mr. Adams.

16 MEMBER ADAMS: Aye.

17 MS. HALSEY: Mr. Hariri.

18 MEMBER HARIRI: Aye.

19 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Lee.

20 MEMBER LEE: Aye.

21 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Miller.

22 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Aye.

23 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Olsen.

24 MEMBER OLSEN: Aye.

25 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Ramirez.

1 MEMBER RAMIREZ: Aye.

2 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Wong-Hernandez.

3 MEMBER WONG-HERNANDEZ: Aye.

4 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Great. That motion carries.

5 Thank you very much.

6 MS. HALSEY: Next is Item 5. Commission Counsel

7 Elena Wilson will present a Request for Mandate

8 Redetermination on Academic Performance Index.

9 At this time, we invite the parties and witnesses
10 for Item 5 to please come to the table.

11 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you very much.

12 Will you please state your full name for the 13 record.

14 MR. HANOWER: Certainly. Dan Hanower, Department
15 of Finance.

16 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you, Dan. Thank you
17 very much.

18 May we present the item, Ms. Wilson? Thank you.

19 MS. WILSON: This mandate redetermination requests
20 that the Commission adopt a new test claim decision to 21 end the State's liability for the Academic Performance
22 Index program based on the subsequent change in law
23 resulting from the repeal of the statute which imposed
24 the mandate.

25 Pursuant to the Government Code and the

1 Commission's regulations, this is the first of the two
2 hearings in the mandate redetermination process.

3 Staff finds that Finance has made an adequate
4 showing that the State liability may be modified based
5 on the subsequent change in law and that there's a
6 substantial possibility that the request will prevail at 7 the second hearing.

8 Accordingly, staff recommends that the Commission
9 adopt the proposed decision and direct staff to notice
10 the second hearing for November 22nd, 2019, to determine 11 whether a new test claim decision shall be adopted to 12 supersede the previously adopted test claim decision on 13 the Academic Performance Index.

14 Staff further requests authorization to make any
15 technical, nonsubstantive changes to the proposed
16 decision following the hearing.

17 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you very much.

18 Dan?

19 MR. HANOWER: The Department of Finance agrees with 20 the staff recommendation.

21 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Great. Thank you.

22 Is there any further public comment?

23 (No response)

24 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Any discussion or questions
25 from members? Ms. Ramirez?

1 MEMBER RAMIREZ: I am going to move the 2 recommendation.

3 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Oh, great.

4 Moved by Ms. Ramirez.

5 Is there a second?

6 MEMBER WONG-HERNANDEZ: Second.

7 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Second by Ms. Wong-Hernandez.

8 Since we see no further comment, thank you very 9 much.

11 MS. HALSEY: Mr. Adams.

12 MEMBER ADAMS: Aye.

13 MS. HALSEY: Mr. Hariri.

14 MEMBER HARIRI: Aye.

15 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Lee.

16 MEMBER LEE: Aye.

17 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Miller.

19 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Olsen.

20 MEMBER OLSEN: Aye.

21 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Ramirez.

22 MEMBER RAMIREZ: Aye.

23 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Wong-Hernandez.

24 MEMBER WONG-HERNANDEZ: Aye.

25 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you very much. The

1 motion carries. Thank you.

2 MS. HALSEY: Next is Item 6. Senior Commission
3 Counsel Matt Jones will present parameters and 4 guidelines on Peace Officer Training: Mental 5 Health/Crisis Intervention.

6 At this time, we invite the parties and witnesses
7 for Item 6 to please come to the table.

8 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you very much.

9 Would you please state your name for the record.

10 MS. CHINN: Annette Chinn, Cost Recovery Systems,
11 representing clients City of Claremont and South Lake
12 Tahoe.

13 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you very much.

14 MS. GEANACOU: Susan Geanacou, G-E-A-N-A-C-O-U,
15 Department of Finance.

16 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you very much.

17 Mr. Jones.

18 MR. JONES: Good morning.

19 These parameters and guidelines provide for 20 reimbursement for law enforcement field training
21 officers to take a training course on crisis
22 intervention and behavioral health. Reimbursement is 23 not required for the local officer employer to develop 24 or present the trainings, as these activities are not 25 mandated by the State.

1 Accordingly, staff recommends the Commission adopt
2 the proposed decision and parameters and guidelines and
3 authorize staff to make any technical, nonsubstantive
4 changes to the proposed decision following the hearing.

5 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you very much.

6 MS. CHINN: I am just here to thank Commission
7 staff for their analysis.

8 We agree with the findings and have no further
9 comments.

10 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you for that.

11 Ms. Geanacou.

12 MS. GEANACOU: The Department of Finance supports
13 the staff's work as well.

14 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you very much.

15 Any further public comment?

16 (No response)

17 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Any questions from members?

18 (No response)

19 MEMBER OLSEN: Move the staff recommendation.

20 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you, Ms. Olsen.

21 MEMBER ADAMS: Second.

22 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: It's been moved by Ms. Olsen;
23 seconded by Mr. Adams.

24 With no further comment, Ms. Halsey, will you
25 please take the roll.

1 MS. HALSEY: Mr. Adams.
2 MEMBER ADAMS: Aye.
3 MS. HALSEY: Mr. Hariri.
4 MEMBER HARIRI: Aye.
5 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Lee.
6 MEMBER LEE: Aye.
7 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Miller.
8 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Aye.
9 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Olsen.
10 MEMBER OLSEN: Aye.
11 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Ramirez.
12 MEMBER RAMIREZ: Aye.
13 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Wong-Hernandez.
14 MEMBER WONG-HERNANDEZ: Aye.
15 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Great. Thank you very much.
16 That motion carries.
17 Thank you very being here today.
18 Item 7 was postponed, so we will move now to 19 Item 8, please.
20 MS. HALSEY: Senior Commission Counsel Raj Dixit
21 will present a parameters and guidelines amendment on 22 High School Exit Examination.
23 At this time, we invite the parties and witnesses
24 for Item 8 to please come to the table.
25 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you very much.

1 Could you please state your name for the record
2 again.

3 MS. GRANT: Lina Grant, Department of Finance.

4 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you.

5 Mr. Dixit, will you please present the item.

6 MR. DIXIT: Thank you. And good morning, once
7 again, ladies and gentlemen.

8 This is the proposed decision and amendment to 9 parameters and guidelines for the new test claim
10 decision that was adopted by the Commission in Item 4.

11 Staff recommends that the Commission adopt this 12 proposed decision and amendment to the parameters and 13 guidelines, ending reimbursement for the activities
14 related to the High School Exit Examination beginning
15 July 1st, 2016, in accordance with XIII B, section 6(a)
16 of the California Constitution and Government Code
17 section 17514.

18 Staff also recommends that the Commission authorize 19 staff to make any nonsubstantive, technical changes to 20 the proposed decision and amendment to parameters and 21 guidelines following the hearing.

22 Thank you.

23 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you very much.

24 Ms. Grant.

25 MS. GRANT: The Department of Finance supports the

1 staff recommendation.

2 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you for that.

3 Is there any further public comment?

4 (No response)

5 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Any questions or comments from 6 the members?

7 MEMBER WONG-HERNANDEZ: Move approval.

8 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Moved by Ms. Wong-Hernandez.

9 MEMBER OLSEN: I will second.

10 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Second by Ms. Olsen.

11 Ms. Halsey, will you please call the roll.

12 MS. HALSEY: Mr. Adams.

13 MEMBER ADAMS: Aye.

14 MS. HALSEY: Mr. Hariri.

15 MEMBER HARIRI: Aye.

16 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Lee.

17 MEMBER LEE: Aye.

18 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Miller.

19 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Aye.

20 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Olsen.

21 MEMBER OLSEN: Aye.

22 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Ramirez.

23 MEMBER RAMIREZ: Aye.

24 MS. HALSEY: Ms. Wong-Hernandez.

25 MEMBER WONG-HERNANDEZ: Aye.

1 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you very much. That
2 motion carries.

3 Item 9, please.

4 MS. HALSEY: Item 9 is reserved for county
5 applications for a finding of significant financial
6 distress, or SB 1033 applications. No SB 1033
7 applications have been filed.

8 Program Analyst Kerry Ortman will present Item 10, 9 the legislative update.

10 MS. ORTMAN: We have been monitoring the following
11 three bills:

12 First is SB 287, Commission on State Mandates:
13 Test claims: Filing date, which proposes language that 14 would specify that for purposes of filing a test claim 15 based on the date of incurring increased costs, the 16 phrase, "within 12 months" means by June 30 of the 17 fiscal year following the fiscal year in which increased
18 costs were first incurred by the test claimant.

19 On August 30th, the bill was held in Assembly
20 Committee because it failed to get sufficient votes to 21 pass out of the committee, and also held under 22 submission an indication of further discussion by the 23 office and authoring committee members, but without a
24 motion for the bill to progress out of the committee.

25 Next is AB 400, State Mandates, which, according to

1 the author's office, is a spot bill.

2 And then, finally, AB 1471, State-Mandated Local
3 Costs Notification, which proposes language that would 4 specify that the reimbursement of lost revenue be 5 provided to certain local agencies as a result of 6 delayed state action, pursuant to the same procedures as 7 filing a test claim with the Commission. Also, the 8 provisions of this bill would be exempt from the 9 exceptions under Government Code section 17556. This 10 bill did not make it out of its house of origin by the 11 deadline, and, as a result, it may become a two-year 12 bill and be acted on when the legislature reconvenes in 13 2020.

14 So staff will continue to monitor legislation.

15 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you very much.

16 Any questions on the legislative update?

17 (No response)

18 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: No? Great.

19 Moving on to Item 11, please.

20 MS. HALSEY: Chief Legal Counsel Camille Shelton
21 will present Item 11, the Chief Legal Counsel Report.

22 MS. SHELTON: Good morning.

23 There have been no new filings or no new recent 24 decisions, but we do have a couple of hearing dates.

25 The California Supreme Court has set oral argument

1 in the California School Boards Association vs. State of
2 California case, dealing with the budget trailer bills
3 relating to graduation requirements and behavioral
4 intervention program for students, for October 2nd at 5 9:00 a.m., and that oral argument can be viewed on the 6 court's website through the webcast.

7 The second hearing is the remand of the discharge
8 of stormwater runoff test claim. That is currently 9 pending in the Sacramento County Superior Court, and 10 that hearing is scheduled for December 6th.

11 That's all I have.

12 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you very much.

13 MS. HALSEY: Next is Item 12, the Executive 14 Director's Report.

15 This report has an action item, and then the rest
16 is information.

17 The action item is the 2020 hearing calendar.
18 Commission meetings are generally held on the fourth
19 Fridays of odd months unless they conflict with a
20 holiday. In 2020, the fourth Friday of November is a 21 holiday. Therefore, the first Friday of December is 22 proposed for that hearing.

23 Additionally, the May hearing is proposed to remain
24 on the Friday of Memorial Day weekend, as is usual.

25 And, therefore, all 2020 regular meetings are

1 proposed for the fourth Fridays of odd months, except 2 for the November hearing, which is proposed for the 3 first Friday of December.

4 In addition, tentative hearing dates are proposed
5 for April 24th, 2020, and October 23rd, 2020.

6 Staff recommends that the Commission adopt the 7 proposed 2020 hearing calendar.

8 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Great.

9 May we have a motion to adopt the committee
10 calendar?

11 MEMBER RAMIREZ: So moved.

12 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Moved by Ms. Ramirez.

13 MEMBER OLSEN: Second.

14 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Second by Ms. Olsen.

15 May we do a voice vote? All in favor?

16 (Ayes)

17 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Any opposed?

18 (No response)

19 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Any abstentions?

20 (No response)

21 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Thank you. So the calendar
22 has been adopted.

23 MS. HALSEY: And then moving on. Workload, after 24 this hearing, there are 40 pending test claims, 39 of 25 which are regarding stormwater NPDES permits and there's

1 also one active parameters and guidelines pending.
2 There are three statewide cost estimates that are
3 currently pending inactive. And, in addition, there's 4 one other parameters and guidelines and one other
5 statewide cost estimate, which are both regarding 6 stormwater NPDES permits that are inactive status,
7 pending the outcome of litigation regarding the test
8 claim decisions underlying those matters.

9 In addition, there's one parameters and guidelines
10 amendment on inactive status, pending the outcome of 11 litigation in the CSBA case, which is currently pending
12 before the California Supreme Court.

13 We also have two requests for mandate
14 redetermination currently pending, one of which is on 15 remand from the court.

16 Finally, there are five IRCs pending.

17 Commission staff currently expects to complete all
18 of the currently pending test claims and IRCs by 19 approximately the December 2022 Commission meeting,
20 depending on staffing and other workloads.

21 With regard to administrative workload, I wanted to 22 highlight some of the work of our procurement team. All 23 state agencies are required to award 25 percent of their 24 annual contracting dollars to certified small
25 businesses, and 3 percent to certified disabled veteran

1 business enterprises, or DVBEs, and report annually the 2 SB/DVBE participation on all of its procurement to 3 ensure that participation goals are met.

4 This report is known as the Consolidated Activity
5 Report, or CAR report.

6 Commission Procurement staff met and exceeded its 7 goals for SB/DVBE procurement 2018/2019 as follows:
8 Instead of the minimum 3 percent DVBE participation, we 9 achieved 24.39 percent. And also, in addition to the 10 minimum 25 small business percent -- or sorry,
11 25 percent small business participation, we achieved
12 29.27 percent.

13 I would like to congratulate our Procurement staff
14 for their successful efforts and identifying competitive
15 DVBE and SB vendors for over a quarter of the 16 Commission's fiscal year of 2018/2019 procurement.
17 Great work.

19 MEMBER RAMIREZ: Congratulations.

20 MS. HALSEY: And then on the tentative agenda
21 items, please see my Executive Director's Report for the 22 items we expect to be hearing in the next meeting or so.

23 That's all I have.

24 CHAIRPERSON MILLER: Great. Thank you very much.

25 It's remarkable, the amount of work you do, the

1 detail. So thank you to all of you and congratulations
2 to your Procurement team.
