

SUPPLEMENTAL FILING

Chapter 834, Statutes of 2001
Labor Code Section 3213.2
Claim no. CSM-01-TC-25

LATE FILING
ITEM 3

Lower Back Injury Presumption for Law Enforcement

Test claimants, California State Association of Counties - Excess Insurance Authority (CSAC-EIA) and the County of Tehama, submit the following to update Commission staff on a matter that bears on the resolution of this test claim.

This Commission, at its May hearing, adopted a statement of decision in the matter of Cancer Presumption for Law Enforcement and Firefighters, Chapter 595, Statutes of 1999 and Chapter 887, Statutes of 2000, Labor Code Section 3212.1, Claim no. CSM-01-TC-19. Before the Commission were two issues: the ability of California State Association of Counties -Excess Insurance Authority (CSAC-EIA), a joint powers agency, to bring a test claim and whether the worker's compensation presumption, in light of new law, was a mandate. The Commission found that CSAC-EIA did not have standing to bring a test claim and the presumption did not create a mandate.

On August 27, 2004, an action was filed in Los Angeles Superior Court, case number BS092146, to challenge the findings and decision made by the Commission.

In this nearly identical test claim, the same two issues are before the Commission with no indication that the Commission staff will be recommending a different finding. Although it may be tempting to clear the Commission's docket of this and other such test claims (six workers' compensation presumption test claims were originally filed - cancer, low back injury, hepatitis, tuberculosis, meningitis and skin cancer), the result will be a loading of the Commission's litigation calendar and a resulting strain on Commission counsel.

Since the issues of one test claim are common to all, and these issues can be resolved by a single judicial appeal process, test claimants urge the Commission to stay the hearing on this test claim pending review by the courts.
