STAFF ANALYSIS

Background and Summary of the Mandate

This mandate addresses amendments to California’s mandatory child abuse reporting laws commonly referred to as ICAN.

On December 19, 2007, the Commission on State Mandates (Commission) adopted a statement of decision finding that the test claim statutes impose a partially reimbursable state-mandated program upon local agencies within the meaning of article XIII B, section 6 of the California Constitution and Government Code section 17514. The Commission approved this test claim for the reimbursable activities described in section IV, as they are performed by city and county police or sheriff’s departments, county welfare departments, county probation departments designated by the county to receive mandated reports, district attorneys’ offices, and county licensing agencies.

Eligible claimants were required to file initial reimbursement claims, for costs incurred between July 1, 1999, and June 30, 2013, with the State Controller’s Office (SCO) by July 15, 2014.<sup>2</sup> Late initial reimbursement claims may be filed until July 15, 2015.<sup>3</sup> Annual reimbursement claims for fiscal year 2013-2014 are due by February 18, 2015.

Eligible Claimants and Period of Reimbursement

Any city, county, and city and county that incurs increased costs as a result of this mandate is eligible to claim reimbursement.

Government Code section 17557(e) states that a test claim shall be submitted on or before June 30 following a given fiscal year to establish eligibility for that fiscal year. The test claim was filed on June 29, 2001, establishing eligibility for reimbursement for the 1999-2000 fiscal year. Therefore, costs incurred on or after July 1, 1999 are reimbursable under this test claim for statutes in effect before July 1, 1999. For statutes effective after July 1, 1999, they are reimbursable as specified in the parameters and guidelines.

However, Penal Code section 11169 was amended in Statutes 2011, chapter 468 (AB 717), effective January 1, 2012, to repeal the mandate for law enforcement agencies to report to DOJ, and to require that all other affected departments in the local agencies report to DOJ only “substantiated” reports of suspected child abuse, and not “inconclusive” reports.

Thus, law enforcement agencies are eligible for reimbursement for the costs of completing investigations of suspected child abuse in order to determine whether a report of suspected child abuse is unfounded, inconclusive, or substantiated, for the purpose of forwarding those reports to DOJ from July 1, 1999 until December 31, 2011. In addition, law enforcement agencies are eligible for reimbursement for the costs of notifying suspected abusers that they have been listed in the Child Abuse Central Index at the time that a report is submitted to DOJ from July 1, 1999 until December 31, 2011, when the mandate to forward reports to DOJ was repealed.

For all other affected local agencies, the reimbursement period for forwarding reports that are “inconclusive” to DOJ is reimbursable from July 1, 1999 until December 31, 2011. Beginning January 1, 2012, only forwarding reports to DOJ that are “substantiated” is reimbursable.

Reimbursable Activities

For each eligible claimant that incurs increased costs, the following activities are reimbursable:

A. One-Time Activities

1. Policies and Procedures

City and county police or sheriff’s departments, county welfare departments, and county probation departments where designated by the county to receive mandated reports, may claim reimbursement for the increased costs to:

- a. Update Departmental policies and procedures necessary to comply with the reimbursable activities identified in IV B. (One-time costs only)
- b. Develop ICAN due process procedures reasonably necessary to comply with federal due process procedural protections under the 14th Amendment which need to be afforded suspects reported to the DOJ's Child Abuse Central Index [CACI]. (One-time costs only)

2. Training

City and county police or sheriff’s departments, county welfare departments, and county probation departments where designated by the county to receive mandated reports, may claim reimbursement for the increased costs to:

Develop and implement training for ICAN staff to implement State Department of Justice (DOJ) ICAN requirements. Reimbursable specialized ICAN training costs include those incurred to compensate instructors for their time in participating in training sessions and to provide necessary facilities, training materials and audio visual presentations. (One time per employee whose job responsibilities involve ICAN mandated activities)

The parameters and guidelines<sup>30</sup> provide:

Any offsets the claimant experiences in the same program as a result of the same statutes or executive orders found to contain the mandate shall be deducted from the costs claimed. In addition, reimbursement for this mandate from any source, including but not limited to, service fees collected, federal funds, and other state funds, shall be identified and deducted from this claim.

To the extent that the claimant has used funding from other sources, as opposed to proceeds of taxes, to pay for the cost of the program, those costs are not reimbursable.

Statewide Cost Estimate

Assumptions

Staff reviewed the reimbursement claims data submitted by 58 cities and 6 counties and compiled by the SCO. The actual claims data showed that 789 initial claims were filed for fiscal years 1999-2000 through 2012-2013 for a total of $90,390,726. Based on this data, staff made the following assumptions and used the following methodology to develop a statewide cost estimate for this program.

- The actual amount claimed for reimbursement may increase and exceed the statewide cost estimate.

- There are currently 58 counties and approximately 478 cities in California. Of those, only 58 cities and 6 counties filed claims. If eligible claimants file late or amended initial claims, the reimbursement claims would exceed the statewide cost estimate. Late initial claims for this program for fiscal years 1999-2000 through 2012-2013 may be filed until July 15, 2015.

- The number of reimbursement claims filed will vary from year to year.

This program allows reimbursement for certain specific activities associated with the mandatory reporting of child abuse and neglect. Claims will be case load driven and, thus, will vary annually depending on the number of incidences of child abuse and neglect that come to a mandatory reporting agencies notice.

- The total amount of reimbursement for this program may be lower than the statewide cost estimate because the SCO may reduce any reimbursement claim for this program.

The SCO may conduct audits and reduce any claims it deems to be excessive or unreasonable. The reimbursable activities in this program are only a small part of a larger process. Claimants may file claims for activities that, while part of the larger process, are not reimbursable and those claims may therefore be reduced by the SCO. In particular, the criminal investigation activity is not an approved activity for this program, so there may be reductions where costs were claims for investigations that went beyond what was needed to make the mandated determinations.

- Future annual reimbursement for this program will likely be lower than the annual costs for the initial claims because there was a significant change in the activities "3.Reporting to the State Department of Justice" and "4. Notifications Following Reports to the Child Abuse Central Index" as of January 1, 2012.

Beginning January 1, 2012 only county welfare departments, or county probation departments where designated by the county to receive mandated reports, may claim reimbursement for these activities. Prior to January 1, 2012 city and county police or sheriff's departments were able to claim reimbursement for these activities as well.

Methodology

Fiscal Years 1999-2000 through 2012-2013

The statewide cost estimate for fiscal years 1999-2000 through 2012-2013 was developed by totaling the 789 reimbursement claims filed with the SCO for these years, for a total of $90,390,726. The projected annual future cost of $2,619,683 is based on the 2012-2013 fiscal year only, since this is the only fiscal year for which the DOJ reporting requirements were reduced for county welfare departments and county probation departments and eliminated for city and county police or sheriff's departments for the whole fiscal year.

Following is a breakdown of estimated total costs per fiscal year:

Fiscal Year	Number of Claims Filed with SCO	Estimated Cost
1999-2000	49	$4,450,878
2000-2001	51	$3,904,886
2001-2002	53	$4,547,122
2002-2003	56	$5,042,269
2003-2004	57	$5,807,605
2004-2005	57	$6,300,066
2005-2006	59	$6,537,541
2006-2007	59	$6,892,112
2007-2008	58	$8,747,223
2008-2009	58	$9,417,051
2009-2010	62	$10,039,542
2010-2011	63	$10,044,776
2011-2012	59	$6,039,972
2012-2013	48	$2,619,683
TOTAL	789	$90,390,726

Draft Proposed Statewide Cost Estimate

On August 5, 2014, Commission staff issued a draft proposed statewide cost estimate.<sup>31</sup> On August 15, 2014, the State Controller's Office (SCO) submitted revised claims data which has been included in this proposed statewide cost estimate. On August 15, 2014, the SCO filed comments recommending no additional changes to the draft proposed statewide cost estimate.
