Re: No. 09-TC-03, California Regional Water Quality Control Board, Santa Ana Region, Order No. R8-2009-0030 and No. 10-TC-11, California Regional Water Quality Control Board, San Diego Region, Order No. R9-2009-0002

Dear Ms. Halsey:

Thank you for your response to our letter of April 16, 2018, outlining the concerns of claimants in the above-referenced Joint Test Claims, Nos. 09-TC-03 and 10-TC-11 ("Claimants"), regarding the series of delays in bringing the test claims to hearing.

We appreciate that the letter describes your office's process for the setting of hearing dates. While your letter indicated that the pending caseload documents on the Commission's website "are to be used for informational purposes only," test claimants must rely upon such information to anticipate, prepare for and arrange to participate in those hearings, which are of course administrative "trials" on the test claims. As I am sure you can imagine, this effort includes significant coordination amongst Claimants to plan workflow and staffing in anticipation of receipt of a draft proposed decision, and well as planning travel to Sacramento for several individuals. Thus, some certainty in the setting of hearing dates is essential. Along those lines, Claimants were disappointed to learn that the projected hearing date for Test Claim 09-TC-03 has been pushed out again, and now is tentatively set for November 30, 2018.

As our April 16 letter stated, Claimants remain hopeful that there will be no further extensions in the hearing dates for these test claims and appreciate your statement on Page 4 of the letter that staff is working to have those test claims and the other pending stormwater claims issued for hearing as soon as possible. In light of your and staff's workload, we are not expecting or requesting any further response.

Thank you again for your response to our letter. If you have any questions, please contact me at the e-mail or phone number noted above.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing, signed on May 3, 2018, is true and correct to the best of my personal knowledge, information, or belief.
